

Published June 2004

Greetings and welcome to the Fourth Volume of Didache: Faithful Teaching. This issue combines numbers one and two due to several factors that are addressed in the editorial, "Why We Publish This Online Journal." We have a strong series of articles in this volume that offer perspectives ranging from theology on the Pacific Rim to exploring the heritage of one of our first Wesleyan institutions in the Church of the Nazarene.

See the link below to read the remainder of the editor's introduction

From the Editor

Editorial: Why We Publish This Online Journal , By Dean G. Blevins, Editor

Research Section

Holiness Embodied in the Asia-Pacific Context By Floyd T. Cunningham

A Dialogue Between Wesley and Confucius on the Theme of Sanctification By Seung-an Im

A Discussion of Power as it Relates to a Local Church Context By Ruth Reynard, Ph.D.

To Spread Scriptural Holiness and to Reform the Nation: The Kingdom of God in the Thought of John Wesley By Philip R. Hamner

Loving “Nonperfectly” to Love Perfectly: The Moral Energy That Arises from Paradox By L. Bryan Williams

Insights into Practice

Christlike Character in Christian Higher Education By Mark A. Maddix

Student Papers

Beyond the Fundamentalist/Liberal Controversy: A Revisionist History of H. Orton Wiley at Nazarene University by Aaron Friberg

The Educational Ideal of the Point Loma Nazarene University By H. Orton Wiley, (edited by Aaron Friberg)