Getting Things In Line . . .

Moving in - the first real adventure at N.N.C.: Unpacking boxes crammed full of possessions that just couldn't be left at home and then not having a place to put them . . . Remembering what you forgot at home and realizing that home is now 600 miles away . . . Meeting your roommate for the first time or getting reacquainted with an old one . . . Renewing old friendships and meeting new people - people who become lifelong friends . . . Trying to be brave and not miss the younger sibling you frequently fought with . . . And maybe even a few tears of homesickness on the pillow at night. But through the good and bad times, N.N.C. quickly becomes the "home away from home" that will be long remembered.

The First Line . . .

What does one do when one finds himself in the midst of approximately one thousand other students and mass chaos? The answer of course is to join in and be a part of the wonderful experience known as registration! Understanding the three main parts of registration is a big help, especially when it starts out by standing in line, standing in line, and MORE standing in line! The ol' "John Hancock" is important as it will be required many times over, often for reasons unknown. Finally comes the big and exciting moment, when after hours of standing, your feet thank you for soaking them in a tub of warm water.

School's A Picnic!

Spiral right: RECREATIONAL ACTIVITIES include the human chain... DEBBIE TONEY watches the festive activities... LORRY WIRTH pushes a human wheelbarrow... RUSS FUNK and Marla Peterson head for first... ROYCE WEST and the classic last bite... IZZY DIZZY... THE GUYS really pile up for Buc-Buc... DOUG OGLE, Kendall Hopkins, and Jerry Long make a grand entrance... GOOD FOOD and company make a picnic enjoyable (Patti Dikes, Randy Johnson, and Nanci Ward).

When Sophomoes Speak, Freshmen Listen . . .

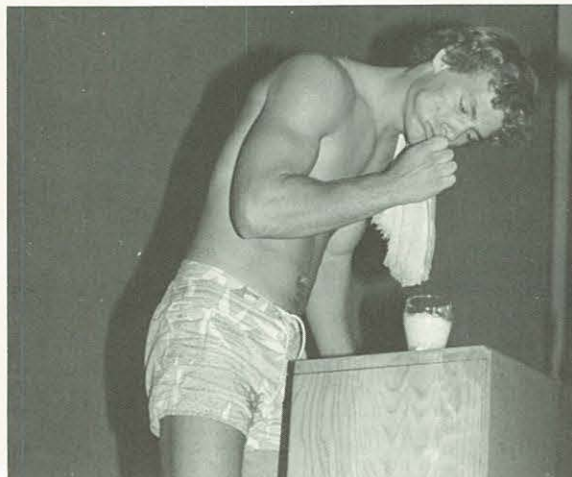

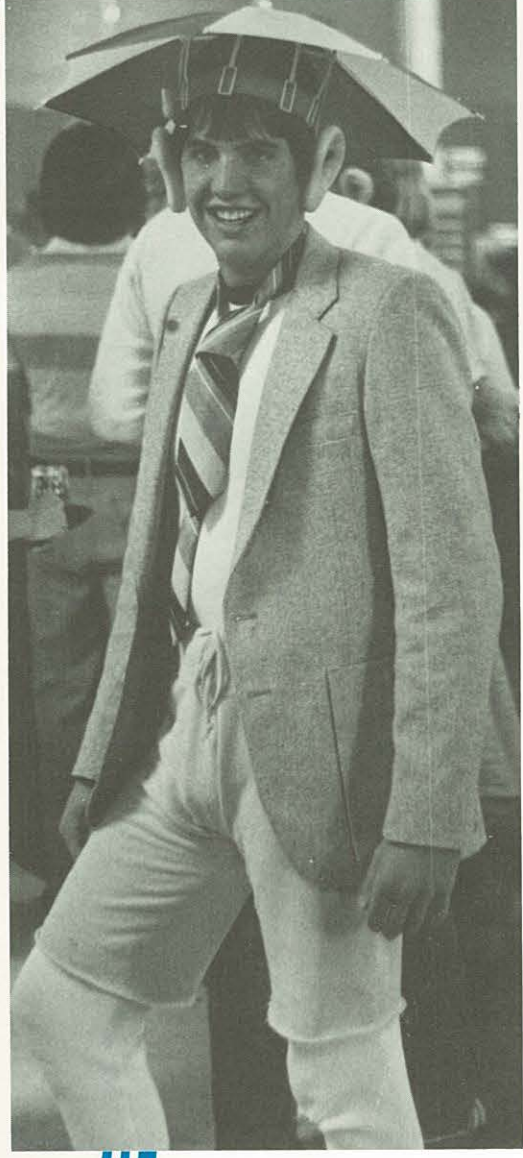

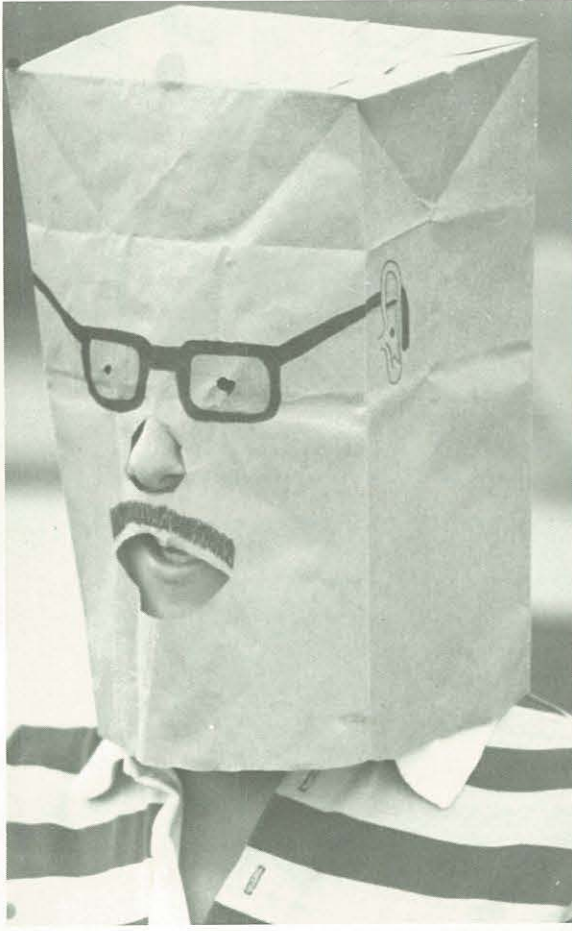

The theme for this years freshman initiation was "When Sophomoes Speak, Freshmen Listen" and believe it or not the freshman class was all ears! The week's activities included, "Listening Pays Days" where the freshmen were paid ten cents by upperclassmen to do some menial and some not so menial tasks. As they dined in SAGA, meal times were a sight to behold. The guys were real knockouts with painted eye lids and rouged cheeks, and the girls were very macho with charcoal mustaches. Dining also included the freshmen wearing brown bags over their heads, eating with chopsticks, and wearing their clothes inside out! There was also a "class picture" taken which ended up in a chaotic water ballon bash. For the more radical freshmen who didn't want to succumb to the rule of the sophomores there was mixed apple eating, drinking a quart of rootbeer through a straw, and the spreading of peanut butter nose to nose. As tradition would have it the sophomore class ended the week with a great fresheree full of fun and entertainment.

Halloween

After the initial stages of planning and a week's worth of construction, the junior class transformed an old grain storage warehouse into a hair-raising, teeth-chattering Haunted House. For three terror-filled nights hoards of people, some students and others members of the community, walked with wide-eyed anticipation through horrifying darkness, nervously crawled through narrow tunnels, and visited various rooms of cackling witches, tin people, and beastly-looking pursuers.

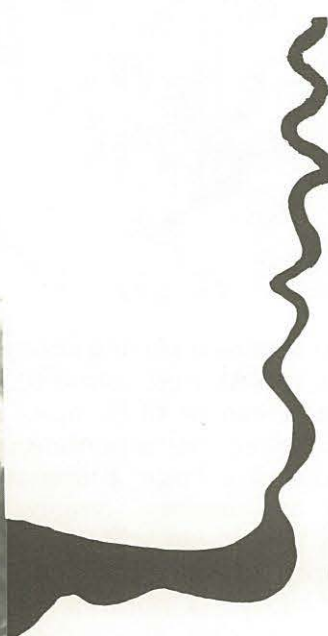

This year's Haunted House, which employed about forty people a night, was such a howling success that it twice ran past closing time into the distant hours of the blood-curdling darkness.

Spiral upward: DEENA FULWOOD sits awaiting her next victim... DALE WATT and Dana Michel in the tin room... DAN HASSMAN occupies the meat room... THE GRUESOME head... N.N.C. STUDENTS really go ape at Halloween... ESTHER HEWITT, which is worse, the goons or the visitors... EDITH BENJAMIN and friend are scared spitless... DEAN THAYER proves his N.N.C. spirit.

NNC was treated to a second stirring concert when the popular family trio, the Archers, came to sing in what they praised as the "clean air of Nampa." Janice, Tim, and Steve, with dynamic instrumentation from their back-up band, dazzled a large audience with their musical versatility and artistry. Singing such well-known numbers as "Stand-Up", "Make Me an Instrument", "Fresh Surrender", "Gonna Rise", and "Sunshine On a Cloudy Day" (a number on which they invited the audience to sing-along), the Archers provided a Saturday evening of humor, and spiritual togetherness and strength.

Dear NNC Students:

It seems that this year there were more miles traveled, more concerts given, more faces smiled at than ever before, and yet NNC somehow stands out as a special place in my mind. I enjoyed so much being able to spend a few extra days with you— that's always the best part for me. For even though singing to you is exciting, meeting you and getting to know your personalities is by far the most exciting part of our time together. Thank you for accepting me as I am, for letting me be friend as well as performer. Friendship doesn't end with physical separation—so I look forward to seeing you again, when we can again share God's indescribable love together. God bless you—every one! In His Love, Doug Howell

Traveling the backroads, He wove His delicate message into the wrinkled terrain of His homeland. His words - embroidered into the fabric of time - echo through history louder than the collective rhetoric of a hundred monarchs. Carpenter, farmer, teacher - the tools of His trade were the weapons of His executioners. "The Fifth Gospel" is His story. It's a story you've heard before . . . you think. In the space of 80 minutes you meet more than 30 characters through the magical medium of theater. This fast moving one-man play uses only two props to tell his story. A story that spans the 33 years in the life of the man who claimed to be the Son of God.

FRIDAY NIGHT LIVE

"Live from Nampa, Idaho, it's Friday Night Live (again on a Saturday night)!" This year's show was action packed, full of live entertainment and again seeded with the corn commercials for which it is famous.

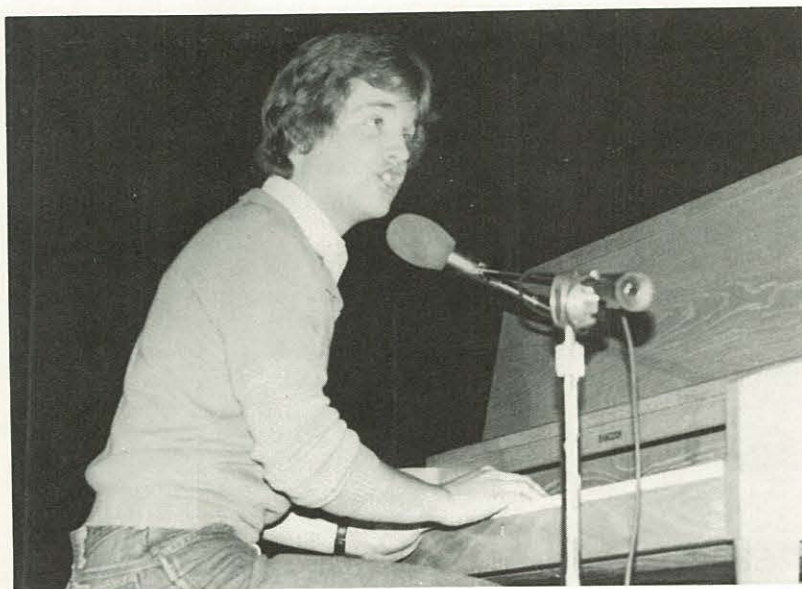

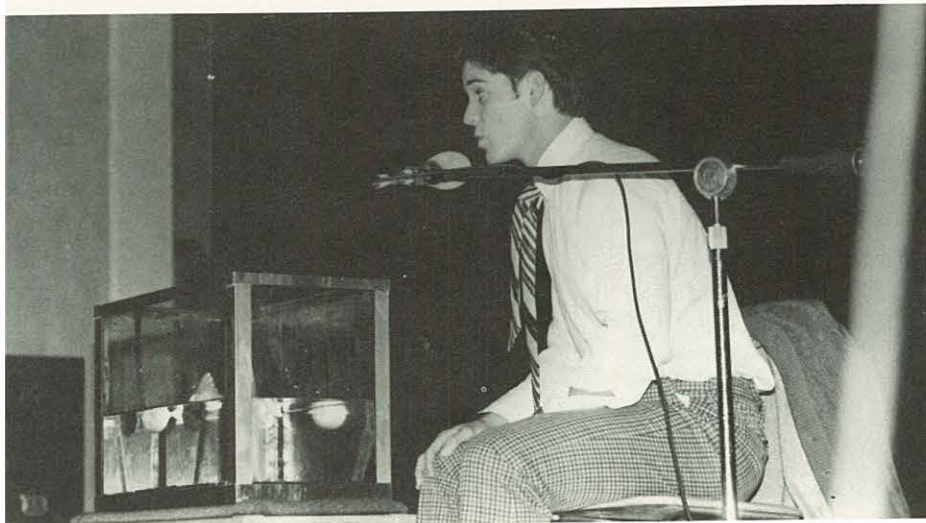

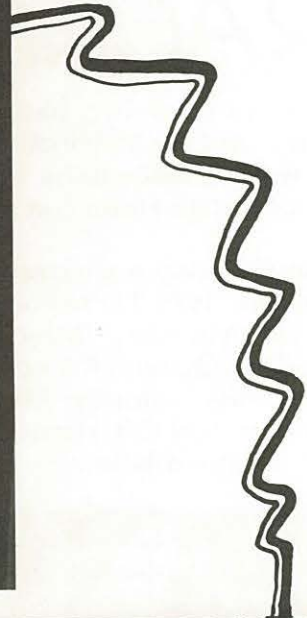

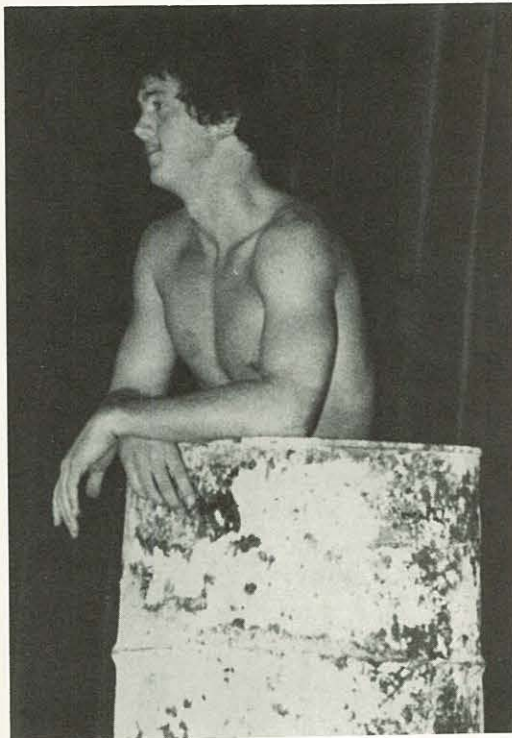

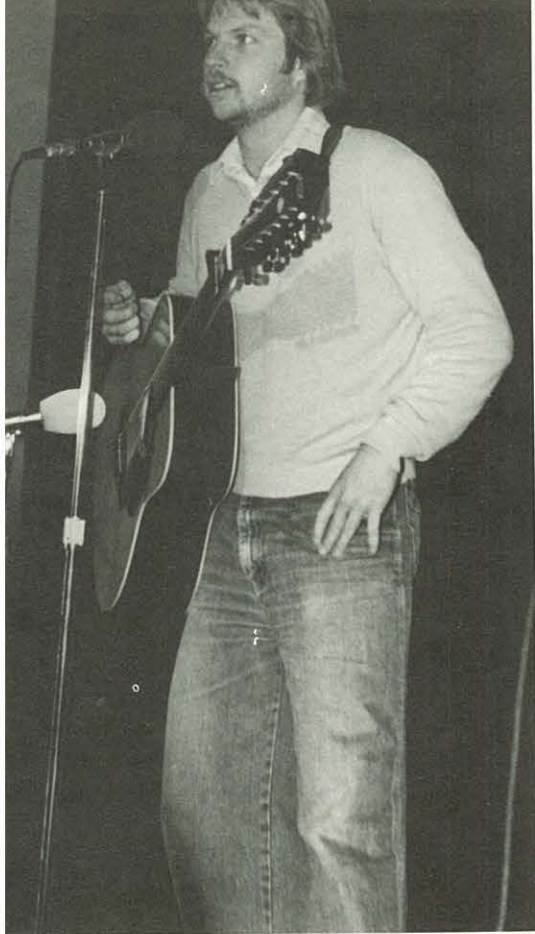

Although the show was a great success, it didn't go without mishap, but the smooth execution by Emcees Bill Bowers and Stan Woodworth, and the skilled hands of two men the show kept right on rolling. During a short power outage, (some students remembering last year's blown fuse, thought this was an intended joke) Jim Bennett entertained with his piano playing while a janitor unlocked the fuse box. (Locked fuse box ... another joke by some ornery person.)

With power restored, Mr. Bill appeared, getting bounced around in a foosball game and falling from a window to complete another one of his dismembering successes. Such was another wild night at NNC...

Circular upward: TERRY REIFF plays lead guitar in S.S. Band... STAN WOODWORTH and Bill Bowers are the cowboys emcees... THE MALE Men serenade Lori Luke the celebrity guest... MARK BERNHARDT sings about one of his favorite subjects, ugly girls... BILL BOWERS seems to have lost his clothes and is left in a barrel... RON SISLER belts out "Breakfast in America"... JIM BENNETT helping out in a short circuit situation... THE DO'S Blues Band... BRIAN HALEY portraits Mr. Rogers with the help of Mr. Fish.

WE'RE ON THE RIGHT TRACK...

With alumni returning, basketball games, drama, music, and the anticipation of a new queen, N.N.C. was the place to be Thanksgiving weekend to celebrate Homecoming 1980.

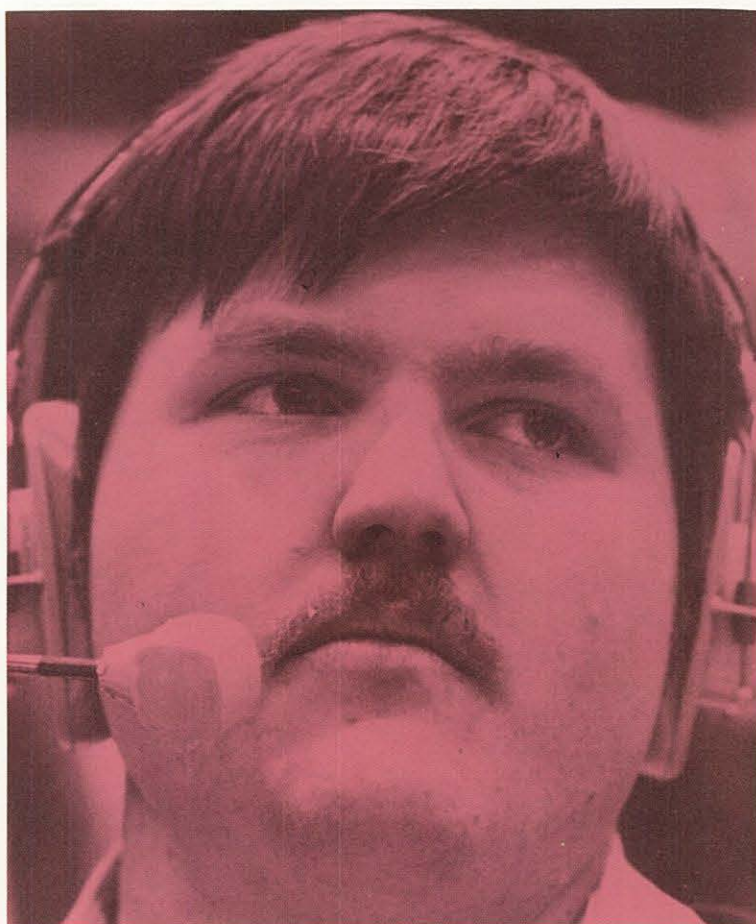

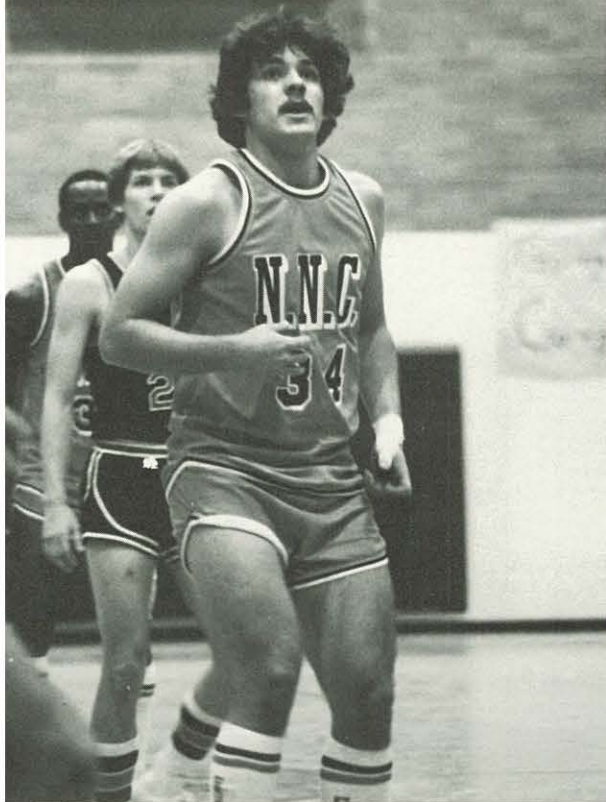

Miss Jan Galloway was crowned queen by Sue Bunker, the 1979 Homecoming Queen. Jan's escort was Mr. Gary Diffie. A large number attended the Queen's Reception after the game to honor Miss Galloway. Also of interest, Jan's mother was N.N.C.'s Homecoming Queen in 1952. (Continued below.)

The Crusaders came out on top both times that they were on the Basketball court. The first victory fell to them in front of an enthusiastic, packed gym as they battled it out against Lewis and Clark College. Saturday night they remained fired up as they handed Lewis-Clark State College a defeat to complete the action-packed weekend.

HOME-COMING COMING 1980...

Through the time span of three days, NNC seemed to become a world within itself with the various and splendid events taking place all over the campus.

Aside from the queen's coronation and exciting basketball games, NNC offered a music spectacular which took place at First Church and involved nearly the entire music department. Dr. Bloomquist, Crusader Choir director, calls the evening, "a fine tradition that is good for the community and alumni and a chance for students to perform together." In its second year, the spectacle was again well-received.

NNC was the place to see the annual parade featuring a marching band, Santa Claus, the basketball team, and royalty. It became the place for class reunions and banquets where students of former days reminisced and observed an ever-changing school; the place for running in the jogathon to raise money for organizations, to perhaps attempt to lose the recent goodness from Thanksgiving feasts; and to see and talk with L.A. Dodger, Burt Hooten.

Even with all the excitement and bustle of activity, a sense of unity and a warm feeling of joy transcended the campus to make NNC a wonderful three-day world.

Winter Activities Avalanche With Success!

With the excitement of Homecoming subsided, NNC social life during the winter months should seem to coast to a quiet stillness, but the debut of two spectacular events kept the action moving ahead.

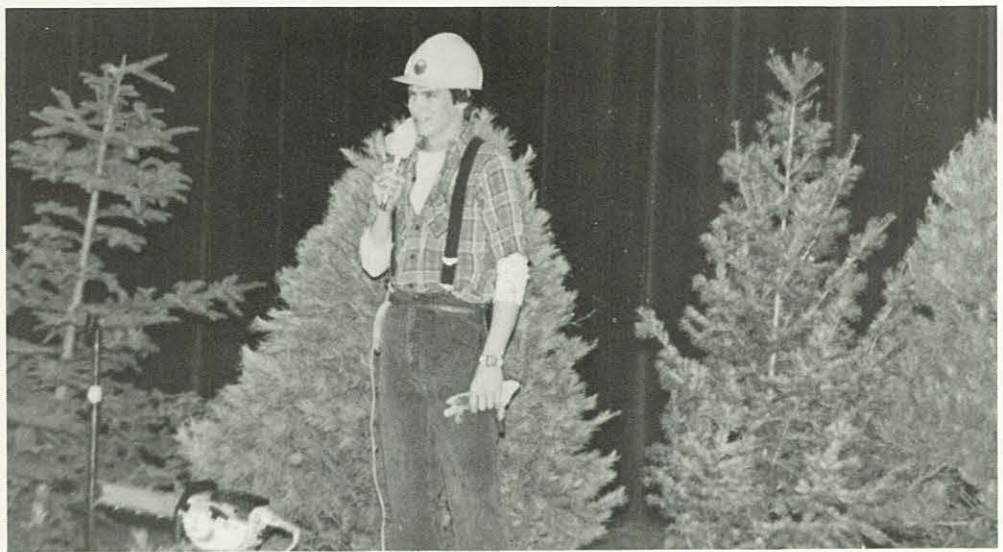

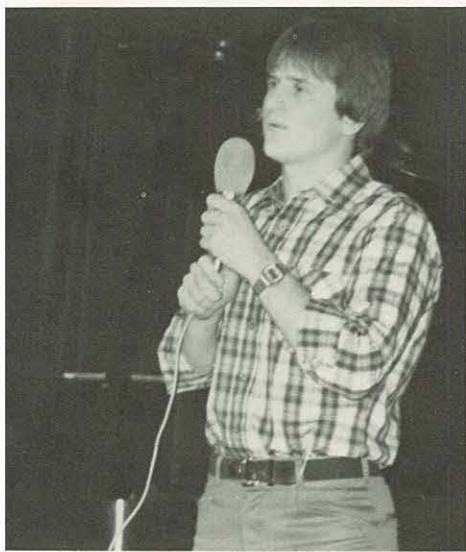

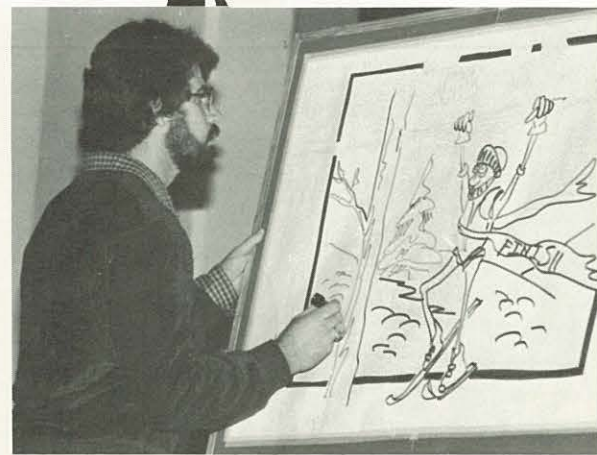

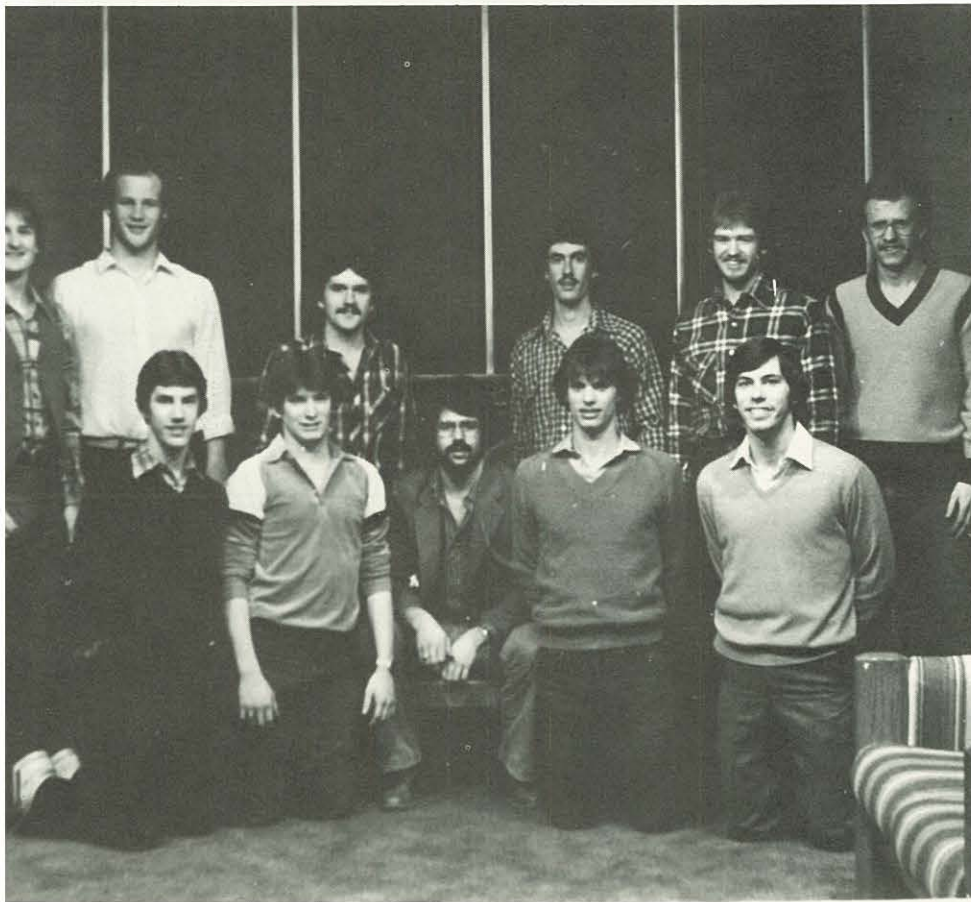

In early December, students and faculty members partook of an enjoyable evening of good food, good company and fine entertainment at the Thoroughbred Restaurant. Hosted by ASNNC and emceed by Kyle Bunker, the banquet carried the theme "We Are the Reason" and featured the brother-sister duo Steve and Marla Petersen's musical talents and Dr. Ray Lindley as speaker.

Another event, Winter Fest, offered to students a January weekend consisting of a free rollerskating party, a pizza feed, and a talent show featuring the king candidates. Each contestant (three chosen from each class by the class councils) gave a speech entitled "Who am I?" Senior Marc Brawner not only won the crown but also received a kiss from the famed Miss Piggy.

Junior hopeful, Bryan Hochalter reflected, "I got to meet some neat guys, and Winter Fest brought us all a little closer."

REFLECT UPON THE GOOD TIMES!

February 12. The day when sweethearts, future sweethearts, and good friends gathered at Old World Catering to celebrate Valentines Day with an evening of fun, fellowship, and, of course, food.

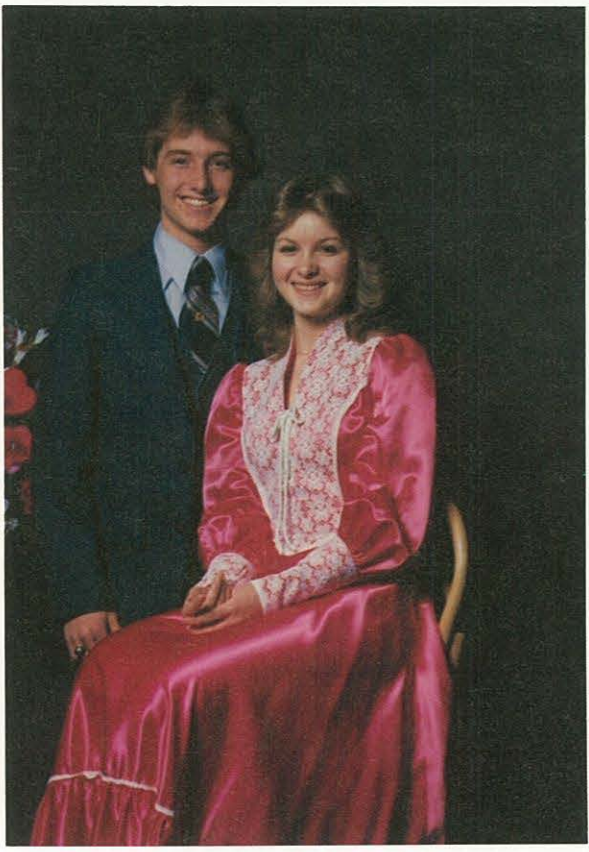

After some relaxing music by Jim Bennett to set the mood of the evening, a steak dinner was served with all of the trimmings.

Lined up for the night's entertainment was Angi Kennelley with a series of poetic readings that spoke of the value of friends. Kathy Mayers, an alumna of NNC, topped the evening off with a mini-concert.

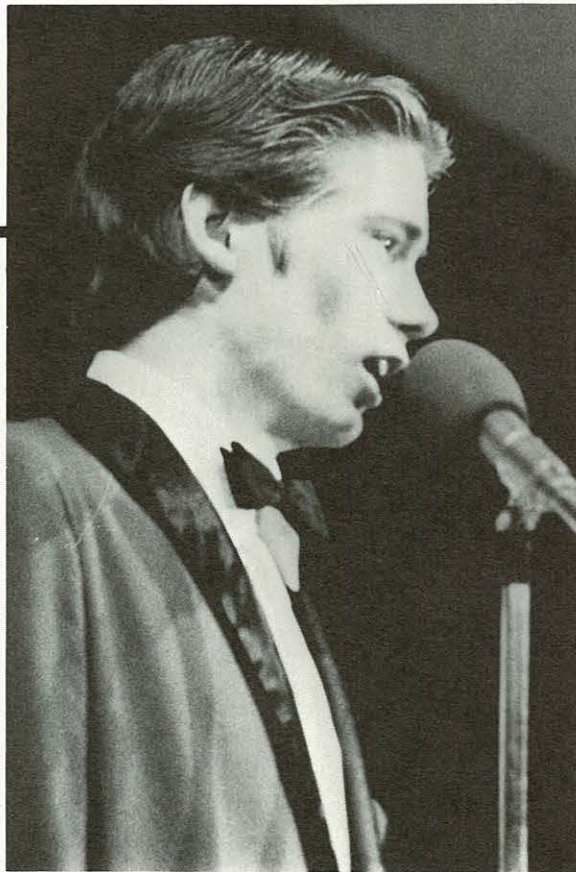

All together, the banquet provided a well balanced evening of friendship, food and entertainment.

Right counter-clockwise: IT LOOKS as if the 1940 dress lengths are back again in the 1980's... TAD NEWBERRY captures the audience with his impersonation of Ray Charles... ONE WOU think they had stepped into the past by the look of this crowd, as most joined in the fun and dressed the part.

A Blast From The Past . . .

On January 31, NNC reversed its direction momentarily to relive memories of the slicked down, red-polished past.

Attired in a wide array of 50's styles, students converged at Montgomery Fieldhouse to watch an intense game between the Crusaders and Oregon Tech. The gym thrived with people decked out in narrow ties, straight-leg, rolled up Levis, white t-shirts, leather jackets, long skirts, bobby socks, and sweaters. After the black and orange prevailed, students with bobbed, pigtailed, and greased heads held high, gathered in the Science Lecture Hall to witness a nostalgic musical jamboree. The "slick" performance included appearances by the rockin' "S.S. Band", the swingin' "Boogie Babes", soulful "Ray Charles", the swooning "Dischords", and the humorous "Pelvis and the Nerds". Old hits from "Jailhouse Rock" to the dimented "Leader of the Laundromat" made the show a listener's delight.

Still pulsating from the rockin', reelin' show, the slickers moved on over to the Senior Soda Shop held in Saga. Besides delicious treats, the shop offered its own entertainment in the way of a magical act: Someone had mysteriously taken the live goldfish entrants in the "slide-down-the-human throat contest."

"Pi Pa Chi" or The Tale of the Lute is considered the masterpiece of the Kun-Chu plays. Its composition is regarded as the cause of the revival of the Southern School of drama in the Yuan Dynasty (A.D. 1277-1368). Written by Kao-Tong-Kia, an adaptation of it was made in the year 1404 for presentation at the Imperial Court of Peking. Since that date it has enjoyed a continuous stage life for close to 600 years.

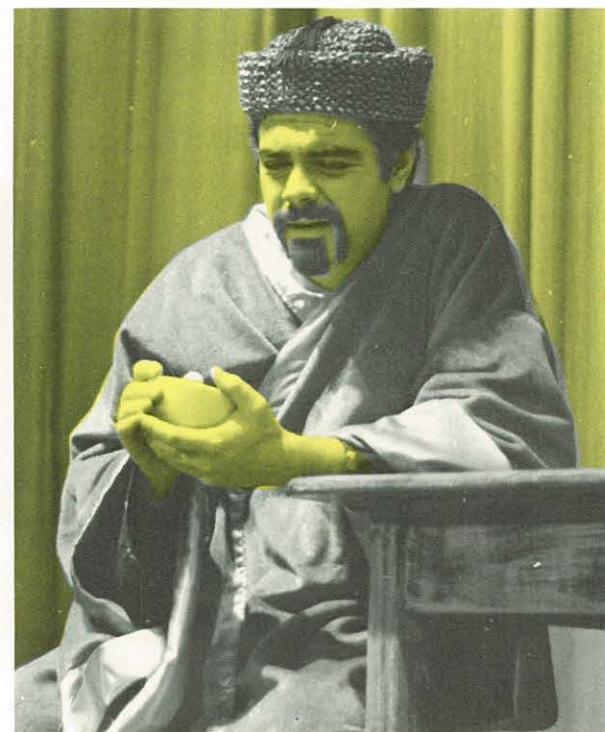

This fall NNC's drama department undertook a play production considerably different from productions in recent years. Despite its differing quality, Director Dr. Earl Owens maintained a professional touch in the Chinese drama, The Lute Song. Keeping within the play's basic cultural context, cast members (those with red, blonde, or brunette hair) dyed their hair black. Some wore painted faces also. Observed Joy Zellmer, "We (female actors) had to wear little socks and take little steps. We also had to bow a lot."

Characters wore bright, hand-made costumes and performed on a bare stage. The drama students portrayed a moving story revolving around the separation of Tsai-Yong and his wife, Tchao-On-Niang. The separation occurs when Tsai-Yong goes to the capital in an effort to be accepted in the Imperial court. Tsai-Yong is accepted but must marry a princess, Nieon-Chi. After Tchao-On-Niang (his first wife) sets out to find her long-lost husband. When they eventually meet, Tsai-Yong does not recognize the thin Tchao-On-Niang. To reveal her identity, Niang sends an old familiar lute to her husband, who immediately recognizes the instrument. Tsai-Yong then searches for his first wife. In the end they are re-united.

Philippians 3:7-14

But whatever was to my profit I now consider loss for the sake of Christ. What is more, I consider everything a loss compared to the surpassing greatness of knowing Christ Jesus my Lord, for whose sake I have lost all things. I consider them rubbish, that I may gain Christ and be found in him, not having a righteousness of my own that comes from the law, but that which is through faith in Christ - the righteousness that comes from God and is by faith. I want to know Christ and the power of his resurrection and the fellowship of sharing in his sufferings, becoming like him in his death, and so, somehow, to attain to the resurrection from the dead.

Not that I have already obtained all this, or have already been made perfect, but I press on to take hold of that for which Christ Jesus took hold of me. Brothers, I do not consider myself yet to have taken hold of it. But one thing I do: Forgetting what is behind and straining toward what is ahead, I press on toward the goal to win the prize for which God has called me heavenward in Christ Jesus. (NIV)

1981 BLUE JEANS

Dressed in blue jeans, students stood in still another line awaiting their entrance to the ASNNC Blue Jeans Bash. The students crowded into very compact quarters and feasted on portions of six foot Blimpie sandwiches, onions included (of course) to make the evening more interesting. The students munched awaiting entertainment imported all the way from Kansas City, Missouri. Alumni Steve Kicks and Jerry Cohagen provided excellent entertainment in the form of drama. Their presentation was thought provoking and even a little inspiring. The all male summer traveling group New Creation provided the lively audience with outstanding gospel music.

THE AUDIENCE seems to be captivated by the antics of Jerry Cohagen and Steve Hicks.

AN EVENING WITH BILL . . .

The Readers Theatre "AN EVENING WITH BILL" was presented in drama troop style. Two adptations of Shakespearean plays made the program. The Taming Of The Shrew and Lovers In Midsummer.

Director of "AN EVENING WITH BILL" was first year professor Darlene Keith with Norma Bennett as assistant. The cast included; Vicki Birch, Sue Brewer, Alan Downs, Vinnie Gates, Angi Kennelley, Ken Owens, Kreg Owens, and Craig Rickett.

SNOW WHITE & THE SEVEN DWARFS . . .

The spring Reader's Theatre presented Snow White, an eleven character production with a cast of three. That sounds slightly impossible, but the innovative cast simple employed a little help from the audience. As they traveled to area schools, they drafted eager children to play trees and dwarfs. The cast included, Vicki Birch with her portrayal of the wicked queen, Teri Thompson as the beautiful Snow White, and Craig Rickett doing the miscellaneous characters.

OBJECT: To graduate from the fine institute of NNC.

EQUIPMENT: Spinner (cut out from the top of this page and assembled); Cards (please write your own to apply to your specific year in college, i.e. Frosh—include things about freshere; if playing with more than one class standing be sure to mix the cards up.); pennies for tokens and tape a different colored paper on each one.

PLAY: This game is played much along the lines of the old standby of Monopoly. When advancing around the board, a player may purchase "properties" with the good wishes he collects from going pass go. When he has accumulated enough good wishes to buy all the "properties" on one side of the board, he is then given class credit for them. The "property" is then put back on the market. Only one player at a time may earn credit on the specific "property" but may be working on more than one group of classes. After one has earned credit from all the classes. He then must pass go three more times before he is able to graduate.

WINNER: The first person to graduate wins.

SURF'S UP!

At last as the clouds parted, May 23 had finally arrived. The beach bums and bathing beauties came out of hiding and Malibu Fest '81 was under way.

Heading off the festivities was the skim board competition. Skim boarders came in all shapes and sizes to show their stuff. The contestants were vying for form and distance. The winners were Dave Ketterman, Connie Taylor, Nanci Ward, and Mark Johnson, and Connie Taylor respectively. Other competitions were frisbee throwing with Tim Szymanowski and Dave Ketterman teaming up for the win. Pam Quick and Stacey Wright took first place for the girls. Squirrt gun quick draw proved Bill Barr as the quickest shot; and a water balloon toss which was won by Dwight Lamm and Gary Miller.

Following the competition, spectators and participants took a supper break with SAGA providing an outdoor picnic. Entertainment was in the form of some beachy tunes, and then some not so beachy tunes.

After a day of basking in the sun, the sunburned beatniks turned back into students who had to nurse newly acquired sun burns.

Have you ever wanted to be a part of the yearbook staff but you weren't quite sure how to go about it? Well, now is your chance. We've laid out a few basic guidelines to this page to get your imagination rolling but you have to fill in the blanks! This will not only make you a part of the staff but it will give you a very unique page that personalizes your book in a memorable way!

Staying In Line . . .

. . . isn't always what NNCers do best, but without all the little things in life. . . we wouldn't have nearly as many things to enjoy. These pages are dedicated to everyone that makes life a little more liveable!?!

Freshman this is the Alphabet...

A very special
THANKS! to my terrific brother
PAUL
...who made the last days of this yearbook liveable by giving up hours of free time to put this book together...I love ya!

THE LAST LINE

The last four years began standing in line, so what better way to end them?!

As the clouds broke, the class of 1981 lined up together for a final time in the first outdoor commencement ceremony at NNC. Varied emotions filled the air as diplomas were given and family and friends gathered to congratulate the graduates.

Pleasant memories of last minute pizza feeds and blizzards flooded the minds as well as the hours spent huddled over the books studying for finals. In spite of the struggles to get through college, this class has made it and can now begin living the dreams they have long envisioned and worked so hard for. Best wishes to you, Class of '81.

Who's Who Who's Who Who's Who

Coupeville, Washington

Therefore, since we have a great high priest who has gone into heaven, Jesus the Son of God, let us hold firmly to the faith we profess. Hebrews 4:14 (NIV)

COLLEEN BEECH
Bagvio City, Philippines

For I am confident of this very thing: that He who began a good work in you will perfect it until the day of Christ Jesus. Philippians 1:6

TIM BUNN
Lafaye, Oregon

Tim, who served as ASNNC President, says that he loves spending time with his family, playing by the ocean, coin collecting, hunting, traveling, and working with politics.

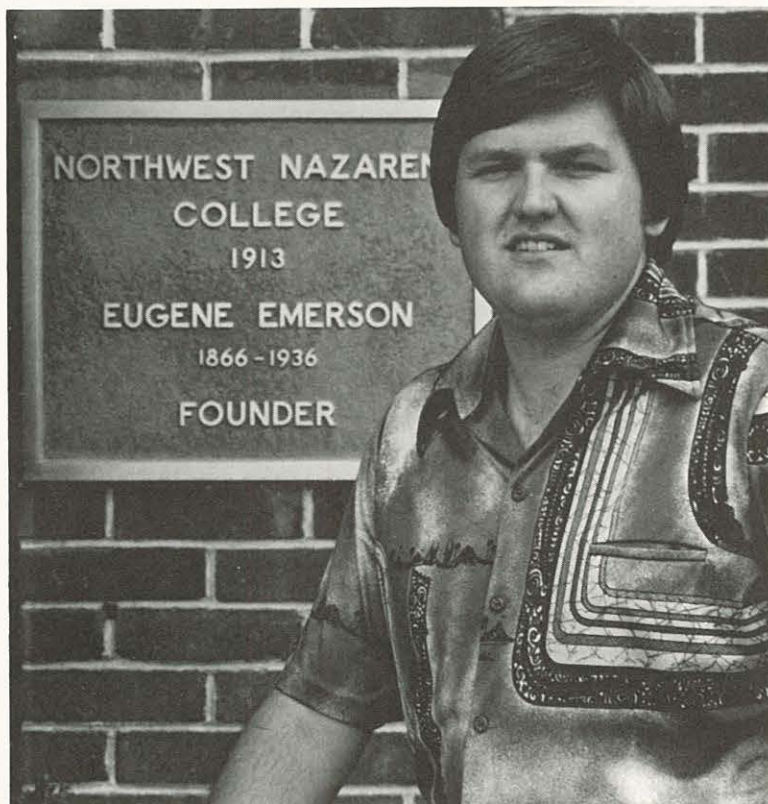

MAUREEN FREITAG
Melba, Idaho

Maureen has been active in women's sports throughout her college career and those people who know her best say she has a love for people and the love comes from Christ.

DEL GRAY
Nampa, Idaho

Del served as Crusader editor during the 1979-80 school year. He has also been active in school politics and participated on the NNC Speech Team.

JAN GALLOWAY
Olathe, Kansas

As most know who are close to Jan, she loves to bake chocolate chip cookies. One of her favorite reminders to life is to "Dream lofty dreams, for as you dream, so shall you become."

Who's Who

Arvada, Colorado

"I walk with a great God who can do the impossible and fulfill my biggest dreams . . . it's exciting! When faced with a mountain, I will keep on striving until I climb over, find a pass thru, tunnel underneath or simply stay until I turn that mountain into a gold mine with God's help."

KAREN LOBSINGER
Aurora, Colorado

Karen enjoys sharing with friends, drawing, bike riding, tennis, and writing poetry. Her love for music was fulfilled by participating in the Northwesterners, while walks through nature leads to another pasttime of fishing.

DOUG LAMM
Kamiah, Idaho

Doug served as ASNNC Chief Justice for the first term of the 1980-81 school year. When not involved with student government one can find him pursuing interests in sports, music, and hunting and fishing in the great outdoors.

Man counts dollars while God counts crosses;
Man counts gains while He counts losses!
Man counts his worth by the things he gains as spare;

But He sizes man up by the scars that he bares.

ASNNC Executive Council

The Executive Branch of ASNNC student government has functioned under the leadership of President Tim Bunn with ideas and visions stretching beyond our campus. The success of the Hunger Awareness Project serves as an example of his beliefs in social responsibility.

Working with Tim was an effective group of officers. Nancy Moench served as Executive Vice-President. Her firm and outgoing personality has given her the tools needed to provide good leadership as chairman of Senate. Kyle Bunker has demonstrated his innovation and creativity with the successful introduction of Winterfest. The work of Pam Rogers was made easier with the purchase of a new typewriter for the Secretary. Business Manager Kirk Bartlow has found the handling of an almost $80,000 budget to be a challenging experience. Finally, Religious Life Director Len Ridley has proved himself as an organizer of student chapels.

Senate cleans house

It is Tuesday, 6:30 p.m. ASNNC Executive Vice-President Nancy Moench gavels a meeting of the student Senate to order. Each week these twelve elected students gather to fulfill their duties as the law-making body of ASNNC. (Continued below).

Aside from the traditional duties of student/faculty committee appointments and budget preparations, the 1980-81 Senate conducted many housekeeping chores. Job descriptions for Senators and B.R.I.C.K. House directors were written; the function and effectiveness of student/faculty committees was reviewed; and an examination of the ASNNC Constitution was conducted. This examination produced a long list of amendments to clear up discrepancies.

The most controversial amendment dealt with Senate's power to dissolve clubs deemed ineffective and not beneficial to the student body. Sometimes called the most controversial amendment ever to come before the student body, this amendment had to survive a presidential veto, an editorial in the Crusader offering strong opposition, and a re-writing by the Senate. None of this, however, prevented it from being approved along with the rest of the amendments in a student vote.

The opening of the tennis courts on Sunday afternoons was also achieved due to the work of a Senate Ad Hoc committee. All in all, the year has proved to be one that will be long remembered.

Pub. Board

The ASNNC Publications Board is an elected board serving as the official publisher of the student yearbook and newspaper. Ten student members and two faculty members meet with the Oasis and Crusader editors to discuss progress and problems that need the attention of Pub. Board. A major task of the board is the selection of editors.

Judicial Board

The Judicial Board is the judicial branch of the ASNNC government. The Chief Justice and his six associates meet weekly to make rulings on all matters relating to the ASNNC Constitution and any club constitutions; handle chapel fines; hold disciplinary hearings; and act as a court of appeals for cases coming from lower levels of student government. Doug Lamm served as Chief Justice of the board during first term, and Mike Zahare filled the position second and third terms. Pictured at left are Dave Ketterman and Bryan Wheeler as they listen to a case being pleaded before the board.

SLPC

The Student Life Policy Council is the student/faculty committee that has the duty of formulating and evaluating all policies dealing in any area of student life at NNC. These policies are then compiled and printed in the Crusader Handbook.

Ever sat a palm tree? Well, sometimes at 4:00 AM the Oasis staff felt like they had. The staff of eleven students worked many late and all-night sessions in order to complete the 1981 edition of the yearbook.

O a s i s

Although most students are not aware of it, the average minimum of the seven hours is what it takes to complete a single page of a yearbook. From this average, it can be calculated that 2138 hours were spent completing this book, or one person working from January 1 until March 28, 24 hours a day, non-stop. Let it be known that it takes work, time, and commitment to put out an edition of the Oasis, and under the direction of editors Dawn Marie Nelson and Craig Rickett, the staff has shown the necessary qualities to make this yearbook a memorable one.

The Crusader strives for excellence

What was published each week, put together by a small staff under the leadership of Steve Arnold, and met with either attitudes of praise, wonder, or bewildered dissatisfaction? The answer is the 35th volume of the CRUSADER.

NNC's student newspaper in 1980-81 was met with mixed reaction because it was often heavily spiced with satire and heralded a new openness in the letters to the editor.

Faced with trials throughout the year, the CRUSADER staff remained consistent in getting the paper out. One of the biggest problems the staff encountered dealt with the printer. Upon delivering the layout to the printer one week, the staff was informed that the company would no longer print NNC's paper. This caused a bit of frantic anxiety but a new printer was found and the CRUSADER survived.

The purpose of the CRUSADER is "to lambast tradition, old fogies, and apple pie with irresponsible and nebulous news coverage."

CIM

The campus missionary society, Crusaders In Mission, sponsored two outreach treks. The "Spring Plunge" took 14 people to a Seattle, Washington church over Spring Break. Ciudad Acuna', Mexico was the site where a second team's summer task consisted of building a parsonage with Sunday School rooms in the basement.

CMA

The Collegiate Ministerial Association is designed to prepare its members to meet the challenges of modern day religious life. The 40-odd students have periodic meetings with special speakers, films, and book reviews, that cover material that is not part of any scheduled class.

Compelled Out Reach And Evangelism

Christian Worker's Band has experienced a facelift, and with it came a new name. Now known as CORE (Compelled OutReach and Evangelism) it functions under the leadership of Gregg Beecher in a ministry that reached out to a community. They held services in nursing homes, in the prison, at the state school, the home for un-wed mothers, and worked with a puppet ministry in other outreach programs.

Athletes In Mission

Athletes In Mission is a new organization to provide fellowship for athletes in Bible studies and share times. Meeting with high school athletes, the group stressed that Christ and Athletics do mix.

College Choir Project Quality

The 43rd annual performance of the "Messiah" was the highlight of the College Concert Choir. Directed by Dr. Marvin Stallcop, the 100-plus-member choir, gave an excellent performance to a full house to round out the Thanksgiving Homecoming activities.

Second and third term performances included singing in the campus chapels and a trip to the Cathedral of the Rockies in Boise.

A New Sound...

Women's Choir

One of the newer musical groups on campus is the Women's Chorus. Led by Dr. Marvin Stallcop, the chorus is open to any woman who likes to sing. The chorus performed several times in chapel after its formation second term.

Crusader Choir

Choir ministers in Europe.

The 60-odd member Crusader Choir, under the leadership of director Marvin Bloomquist, performs 25 to 30 concerts each year in various area churches. Also, during the 1980-81 college year, the choir went on Spring Tour to the Washington Tri-Cities area and the Vancouver/Portland area. The highlight of the year was a 21-day tour of Europe where sacred concerts were presented in England, Holland, France, Switzerland, Austria, and Germany.

Take Note: The Northwesterners sing again!

As usual, the 1980-81 edition of the Northwesterners completed a very successful year of ministry and song. Under the direction of Dr. Double E. Hill, the ensemble of voices sang in area churches nearly every Sunday.

The traditional Christmas Concert, presented in early December, was greeted with warm appreciation. In March, the group went on a ten day tour in Washington. An impressive performance of "Brigadoon", the story of a village in Scotland that appears only one day every hundred years, was presented to packed houses in three occasions in May.

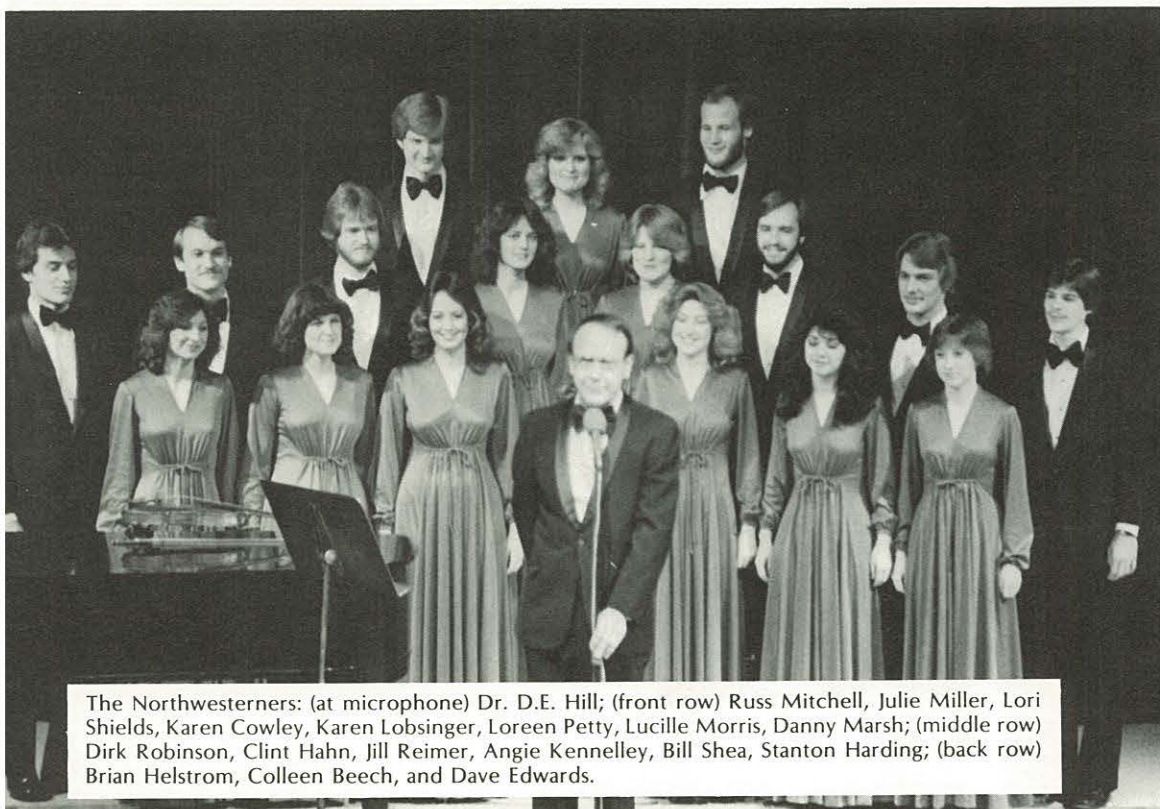

Third term finals didn't end the year for the Northwesterners. They spent four and one-half weeks touring Denmark, West Berlin, Spain, and Portugal sharing Christ's love through song.

Saxophone Ensemble

The Saxophone Ensemble was formed during second term by director Michael Bankston. The seven members have played in about a dozen area churches as well as having gone on a three day mini-tour of Eastern Washington and Central Idaho.

New selection process

Selection of the summer traveling groups by the Communications Office underwent change this year. Students auditioned individually as opposed to pre-formed groups. One of the groups, the NNC Ambassadors, will still be under contract during the next school year.

Concert Band

The NNC Concert Band, led by first year professor Michael Bankston, played a number of concerts during the school year. For most of the 60 band members a trip to Seattle, Washington was the highlight of the year. In Seattle, the band gave concerts at three area churches and served as the pep band for an NNC-Seattle Pacific University basketball game.

Student officers of the band were Steve Kuykenhall, President; Mike Lyons, Vice-President; and Muriel Patterson, Secretary.

As in the past, the NNC Lab Band delighted its audiences with music from the jazz and blues periods. The 20-odd member group did not perform many times, but when they did, Dr. Willis saw that they presented music with a style all its own.

Hallelujah Brass

The fifteen members of the Hallelujah Brass found this year to be one of increased performances over past years. In addition to concerts in most Nampa area churches, Dr. Jim Willis' group went on three long-distance tours.

The brass ensemble went on six-day tours to Seattle in February and to the Portland area in April. While in Portland, they played in Easter Sun rise services at the Portland Memorial Coliseum.

The highlight of the year was the third tour of the ensemble: a 21 day trip to the Windward Islands of the Caribbean Sea. In addition to the fun, the Hallelujah Brass participated in many backyard Bible schools, youth camps, and ministered in churches and on the streets, thus exposing five islands to the Church of the Nazarene.

Pep Band

What's a basketball game without a pep band? Well, no one at NNC can tell you after this year. About 40-45 students made sure that there was a strong pep band at all of NNC's home games. With a broad variety of music in their repertoire, there can be no doubt that they added life to the crowds in Montgomery Fieldhouse.

AGO

The American Guild of Organists is a national organization to promote the continuation of good music in the churches. NNC's chapter consists of about ten members.

The group meets once a month to discuss organs and have indepth discussions of composers and their music. Several NNC students participated in the Treasure Valley "organ crawl", an event enabling organ enthusiasts to visit the organ chambers of area churches.

A.W.S.

The Associated Women Students, under President Renee Miller, attempts to promote a friendly atmosphere on campus by helping, giving advice, counseling with others, and by sponsoring Twirp Week, the Thanksgiving Banquet decorations, special seminars, and the twice annual blood drives.

A.M.S.

The newest organization on campus is the Association of Married Students. Formed by Advisor Barbara Lindley and President Richard DePasquale, the group tries to meet the needs of married students by focusing in on their relationship with NNC by planning times for married students and their spouses to get together for times of fun and fellowship. The AMS had a number of successful activities for its first year, and looks like it will be an important group for many years to come.

GNG/N-Club

The athletes of NNC have two service organizations on campus known as Gamma Nu Gamma and N-Club.

GNG is composed of about 50 women involved in women's athletics and intramurals. As a group they try to stress Christian character on and off the court, track, and field. Activities held for GNG members include: a campout, a twirp dinner, a taffy pull, and several parties.

N-Club, under President Mark Webb, is composed of men who have earned a varsity letter. The group promotes interest in Intercollegiate and intramural athletics and encourages good sportsmanship among students.

Forensic team experiences a full calendar.

Pi Kappa Delta, the national fraternity for inter-collegiate debaters and competitive individual speakers, serves to promote fellowship and scholarship among its members in the field of forensics.

The 1980-81 members competed at seven tournaments in the Northwest, taking honors in many individual events. # Social Work Club

The Student Association of Christian Social Workers is an organization consisting of social work majors. The 50 members form a close identification with the profession through the exploration of contemporary social welfare issues. As a club they expose the general student to the different aspects of social work. The pictured officers of the Social Work Club are: Kathy Back (President), Ann Lueck, Dana Dennis, and Mary Lu Willis.

Pi Omicron

Pi Omicron is the NNC chapter of the Idaho Student Home Economics Association. The club provides Home Ec. majors with a professional organization that will help prepare them after graduation. Among the projects completed under President Sue Manley were the Queen's Reception arrangements at Homecoming and a spring fashion show, "Fashion on Stage." Pictured are: Carmen Shinn, Vicki Belzer, Beth Potwin, Elizabeth Murtland, Jill Reimer, Eula Tombaugh, and Sue Manley.

Assoc. Nursing Students

NNC's Associated Nursing Students are involved in a co-operative program with Boise State University. In addition to heavy classroom loads, the students work two days per week at either Mercy Medical Center or St. Alphonsus Hospital.

Hitting the slopes

The NNC Ski Club, led by Dr. Jim Willis, is an organization for all students interested in swishing the slopes. Before the beginning of the season, they meet to watch films about the sport of skiing. The highlight of the year was the annual trip to the internationally renowned resort Sun Valley for two days of fun.

Spirit Freaks

What wears orange and white and makes noise? The answer is a revived organization known as the Spirit Freaks.

This rowdy bunch, led by Daryl Judd, attempts to liven the crowds at NNC home basketball games by being very spirited themselves. Known for their puns and their creative antics one could always expect them to be up to something in their attempts to enhance the NNC basketball spirit. Although the number of members varied from game to game, the Spirit Freaks without a doubt added a spark of life and excitement to the crowds in Montgomery Fieldhouse.

Joining the list of new organizations on campus is the Powerlifting Club, open to all students who are interested in improving their own weightlifting capabilities. They also work to improve NNC's weightlifting facilities.

Karate Club

The NNC Karate Club is open to anyone who is a martial arts enthusiast. The approximately thirty members, under the direction of Glenn Harmaning, a third degree blackbelt in Kagikumi Karate, meet weekly for a learning/practice session.

Annually the club goes to a tournament held in Idaho Falls, Idaho. There, students from all over the state participate in sparring (fighting) and kata (formal exercises).

Team posts best season ever

The 1980 NNC Field Hockey Team worked its way to the most impressive season ever, earned a Region IX Championship, and became the first NNC women's team to make it to nationals.

Led by Coach Jean Horwood, the Crusaders ended the season with fourteen wins- two of them from Boise State University, and another from the big University of Brigham Young. Contributing much to the winning season were top scorers Maureen Freitag with 19 goals followed by Peggy McMillan with 12, and Lori Wright with 10.

The Hockey Team capped off their season with a trip to Nationals in Edwardsville, Illinois. Although NNC did not bring home a win, they didn't hang their heads low after it was over. Coach Horwood Commented, "We would have liked to have won, but I think they were really pleased that they did as well as they did." The Crusaders lost two close games, but definitely showed that they were capable to compete at a national level.

Netters volley to a winning season.

The NNC Spikers were lead by team captain, Sue Collar. Sue, the only senior on a sophomore dominated team, was a definite leader and her experience was always evident on the court. First year coach Kathy Haughey noted that the overall defense of the team improved during the season in areas of blocking and back row play. Outstanding improvements were seen in Jennifer Herp who moved into the setter spot well, and Pam Quick who is probably the team's strongest and most consistant backrow player. All members showed improvements through the season and found a place where they could best help the team. Coach Haughey added, "If the majority of them return next year, we will have a stronger, more confident team."

Third year makes winning a tradition.

Although the NNC Soccer Team was denied the District II NAIA Soccer Title, they ended the season with a highly respectable 9-4 overall record. In only their third season as an intercollegiate team, NNC found that while the team was showing great improvement, so was their competition. Four weeks into their season it looked as if they were headed for a district title. However, the Lewis & Clark Pioneers denied the Crusaders a shot when they beat NNC 2-1.

Essa Gaye lead the team scoring with 13 goals for the season, followed by Sulayman Njie with 8, and Brian Wheeler with 5 goals. Through the 13 game season, the Crusaders scored 37 goals to their opponents 18. Contributing to the difference in the total points were goalies Carl Hedin with 40 saves in 8 games and Gary McCarty with 12 saves in 2 games. Assists were lead by Sulayman Njie with 9, followed by Gaye and Wheeler with 5 and 4 respectively.

All-District honors were received by right wing Sulayman Njie, center forward Essa Gaye, and Full-back Scott Pelham.

Harriers capture Fifth in District

With all the endurance and stamina needed to do well in cross country, this demanding sport is one in which few participate. But for those who do, it becomes a rewarding experience.

The 1980 Cross Country Team consisted of five freshmen and two seniors. Freshmen- Gregg Barrett, John Gibson, Dan Graber, Gary Martin, and Dave Smith. Seniors- Chet Brown and Gary Diffie.

Paced by the performance of Dan Graber, the Crusaders faired well in the four meets they participated in. At the District meet in Portland, Oregon, the team ran well and as a result moved the District finish of a year ago up four places to a fifth place finish on the season. First year coach, Dave Mangum was pleased with the season and with five freshmen on the team, he will be looking optimistically to next years outcome.

The 1980-81 NNC Basketball Team may not have won every game they played, but you can bet they hit their oppositions with very tough, close games. 12 games through the season were decided within four points or less. These close games were capped off by a 68-67 loss to Seattle Pacific in four overtimes.

The Crusader's strength this year was definitely their depth. No real outstanding player, just good team ball. Coach Terry Layton said about the team, "We're a sixth man team, we've got 14 sixth men." Everyone on the team played a good amount of ball.

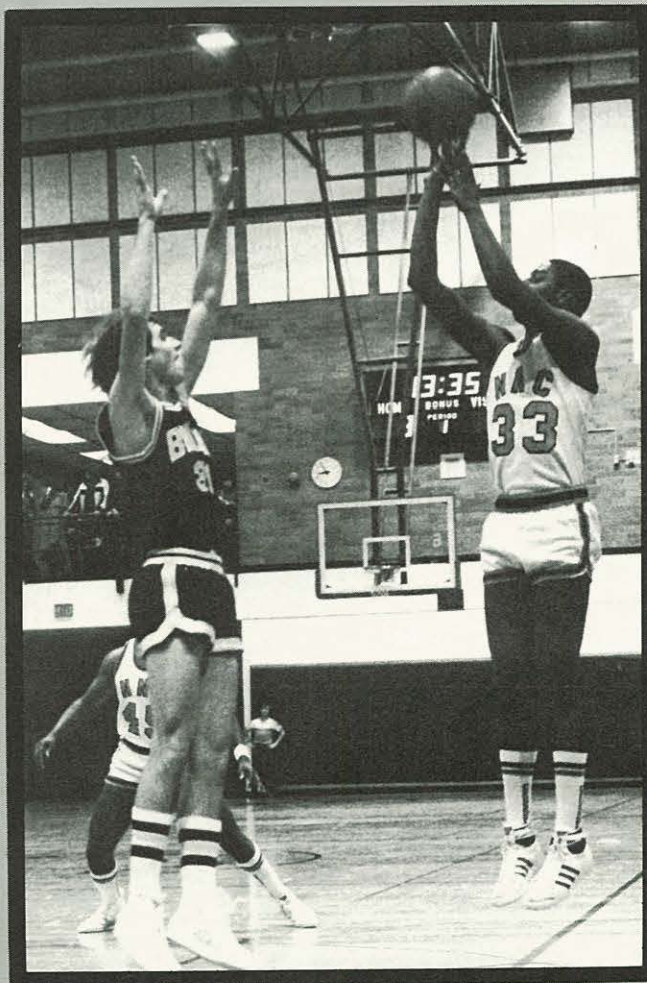

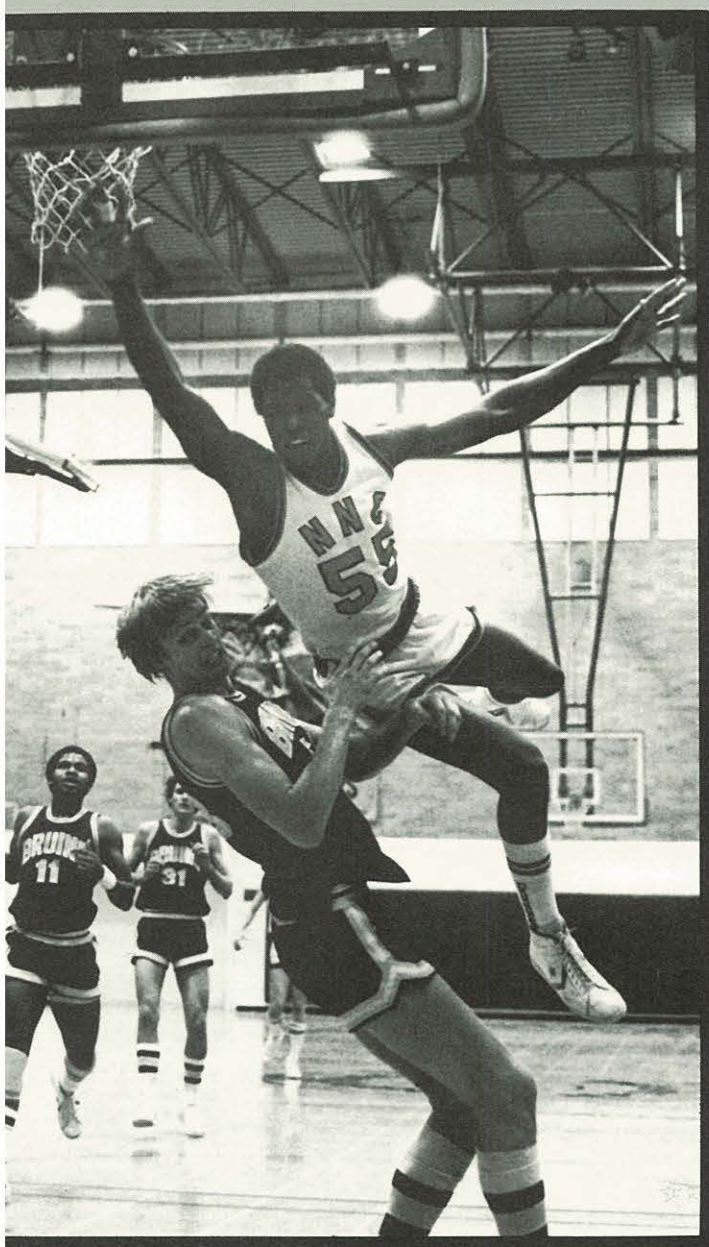

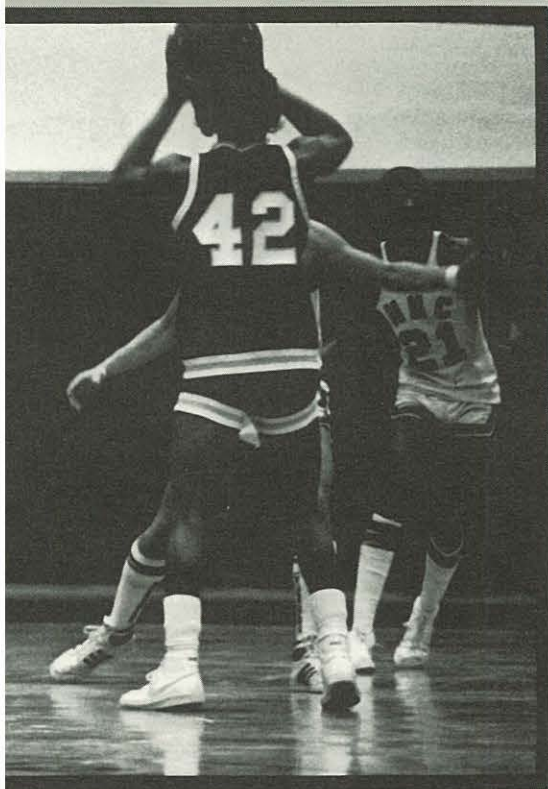

Senior Robert Donaldson led the team in total points with 379 and came down with 236 rebounds. Darryl Weber led the team in assists with 76 followed by Dan Tristan with 72. Tristan also led the team in steals with 40. Finishing the season with a 15-15 record, the men's basketball team showed some developing new talent along with the veterans to produce an exciting year.

The NNC Women's Basketball Team came up with another impressive season as they tied for first place in the conference and ended with second place in the Northwest District. Senior Sue Collar and Junior Peg Hoover were the only upperclassmen on the young team. They both proved to be major scoring threats for the Crusaders. Freshmen Zorada Breland and Shelley Johnson added height to the team and brought down those needed rebounds. "To play baseball with a bunch of Christian players is a very complete feeling. It has provided all the elements for contentment."

-Steve Hodges

First year coach, Jack Alban brought the NNC Baseball Team up from a record of 5-22 in 1980, to a very respectful 17-18 season. Highlights of the year were the doubleheader win over Whitman and the 3 game wins over Eastern Oregon College through the season.

Senior Steve Hodges dominated the season batting records with 39 hits, 24 runs, 2 triples, and 21 stolen bases. Steve also came up with the highest team batting average of .348. Both Stu Dennis and Jeff Duerner came up with the most runs batted in with 21.

Catcher Widd Medford was awarded the Eldon Beer Baseball Memorial. This award is given to the outstanding freshman baseball player. Steve Hodges received the J.B. Frazier Baseball Award for being considered the player who made the greatest contribution to the total baseball program.

-Peggy McMillan

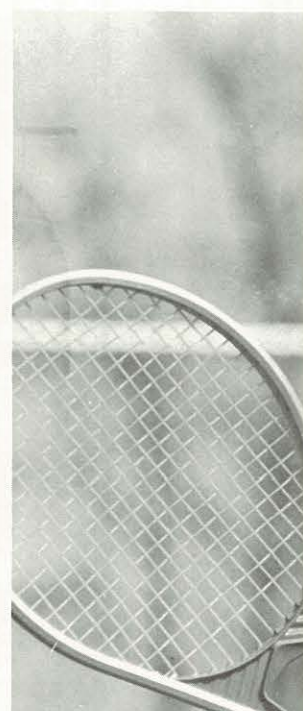

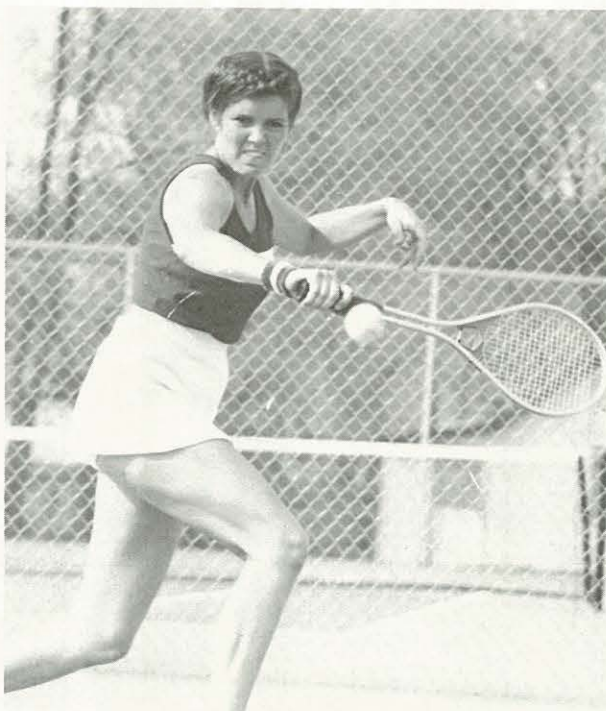

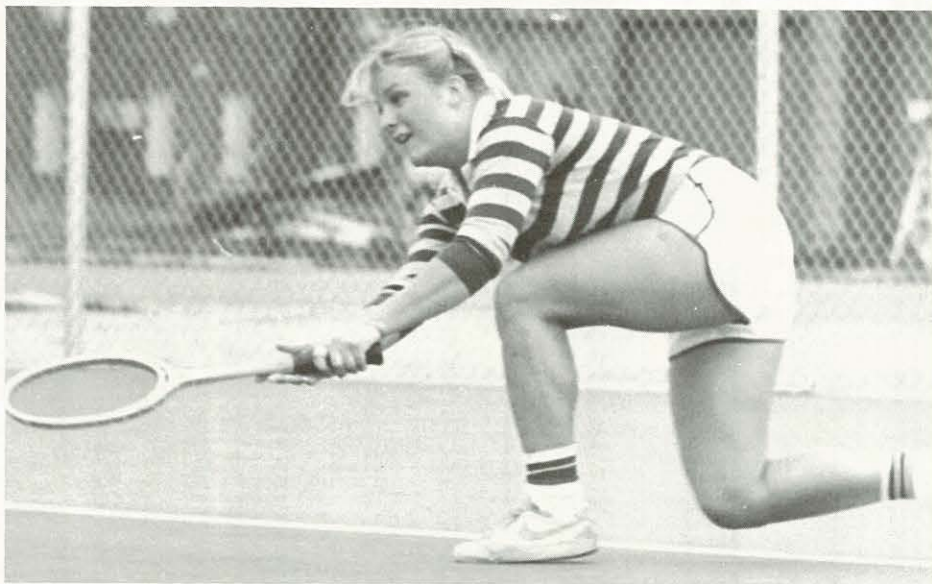

The Woman's Tennis Team wrapped up the season with a six win, twelve loss record. Number two player, Dana Michel came up with the most successful individual record of 8-4.

In doubles matches, the McMillan/Michel team posted a sparkling 12-0 regular season record and earned themselves a trip to Regionals. Second doubles team, Jan Finkbeiner and Linda Grim ended their season 3-2.

At the Regional tournament, Dana Michel won the consolation bracket, while the doubles team; and McMillan lost two consecutive matches.

Receiving the Wanda Rhodes Tennis Award for '81 was Peggy McMillan for the most outstanding in character, sportsmanship, and enthusiasm. Coach Scott Michaelson was pleased with the season, as all members were very competitive and in close contention at most matches.

With Betty Vail being the only one lost to graduation, the team looks very strong for next year.

"Even though we didn't go to District, which was our goal, we all felt we had had a successful season."

-Doug Hanson

The 1981 Men's Tennis Team, lead by coach Terry Layton, went through the season with some sweet wins and some very close losses. The highlight of the season happened when the team came up with a 6-3 victory over College of Idaho. They had previously lost to C. of I. in two close matches, 3-6 and 4-5. The first doubles team of Doug Hanson and Bill Rapp won a close decision over the eventual district champions.

Doug Hanson held the number one spot for the team in singles followed by sophomore Phil Bryson. Seniors Doug Hanson and Bill Rapp were the number one doubles team, and number four man, Terry Hanson teamed up with Phil Bryson to fill the number two doubles team.

With most of the members returning next year, the young but well-talented team should perform very well.

Freshman Greg Tapley

The 1981 NNC Golf Team proved to be tough contenders for the NAIA District II golf crown as they finished second in the district. The Crusaders finished just six strokes behind Willamette, the district champions.

At the District meet, Freshman Greg Tapley ended in a fifth place standing in individual scoring and was automatically selected to the all-tournament team.

Senior Dennis Lawrence was elected the most improved member and team captain Jeff Bell received the Taylor Golf Award for making the greatest contribution to golf.

Coach Art Horwood said, "With four of six guys back for next year, we're looking for good things. We'll be strong."

"To go to Nationals was great, a real accomplishment."

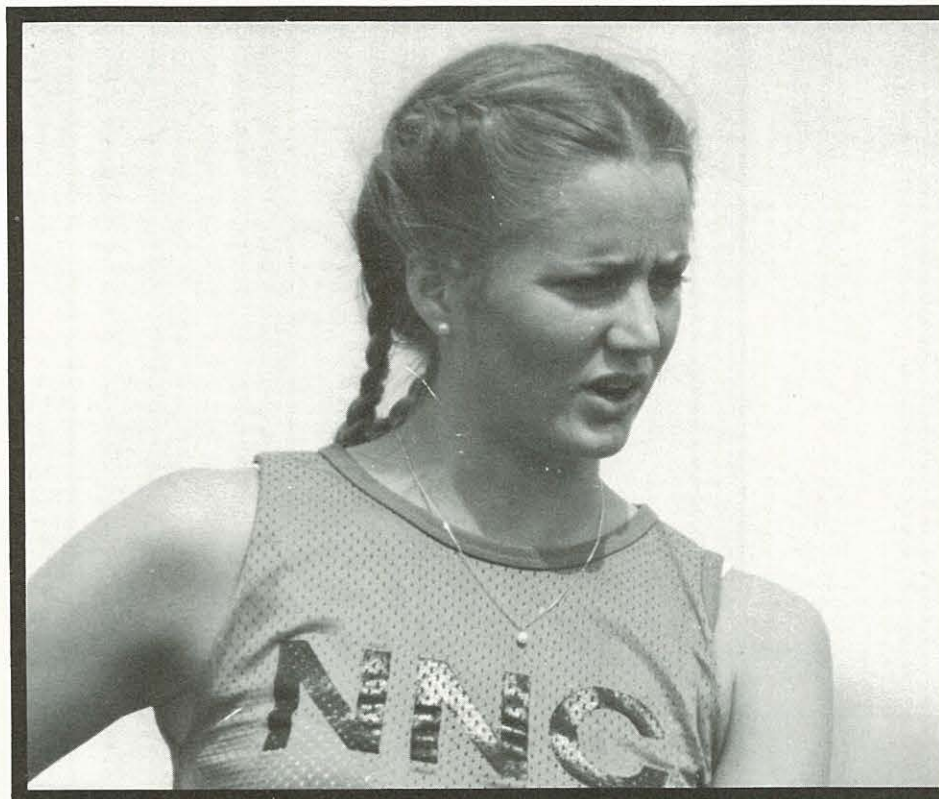

-Chris Pease

The 1981 Season was a very good one for Women's Track and Field at NNC. Through the season, six new school records were set; 100 meter, 1500 meter, 3000 meter, 400 meter relay, mile relay and the long jump.

The season came to a sweet finish when four athletes earned a trip to the AIAW Div. III Nationals in Hayward, California. Antonette Blythe was the most valuable newcomer to the squad by qualifying for Nationals in three events.

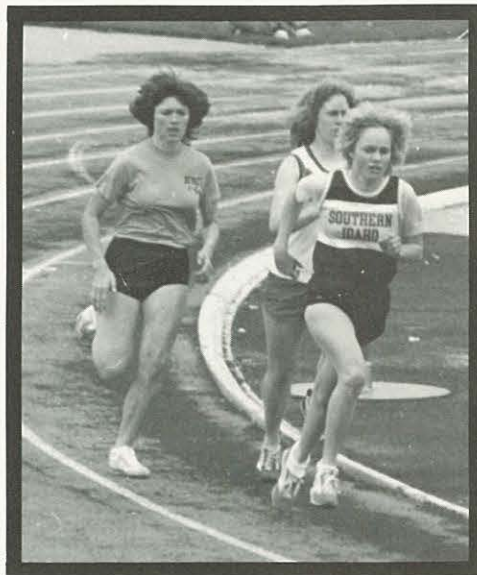

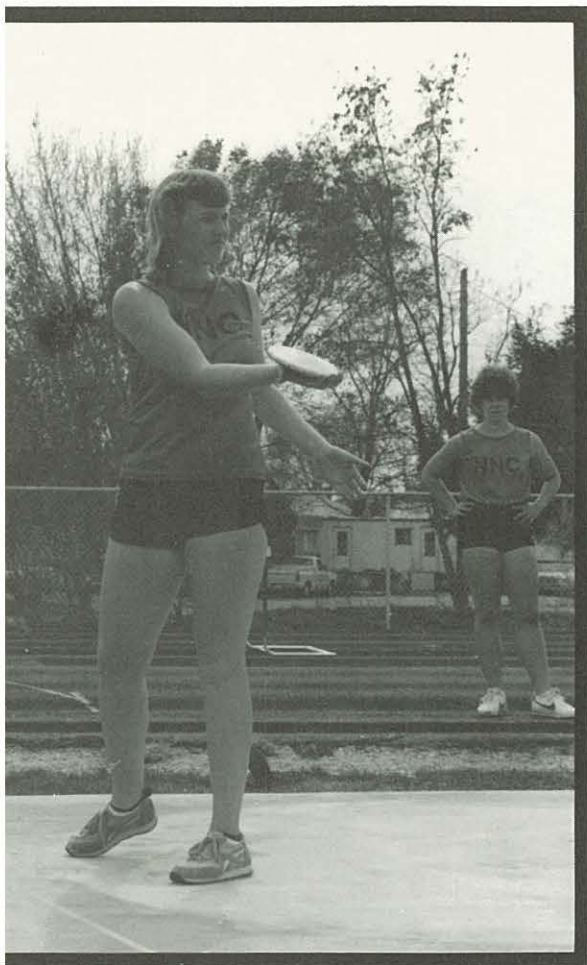

At Nationals, the 400 m. relay team broke the school record by running a time of 50.1 in the semifinals, but failed to qualify for finals. In the 100 m., Antonette Blythe failed to qualify for finals, thus finished in 11th place. The highlight of the year came when Blythe won the long jump with a personal best of 18' 1", and captured a National Championship. To have a National Champion and send four girls to Nationals is a first ever for a NNC Women's Track Team.

Senior Chris Pease was awarded the L.E.S. Womens Track and Field Award for sportsmanship, skill, ability, enthusiasm, and overall contribution to the team.

The Men's Track and Field of 1981 was characterized by several individuals establishing personal records and the emergence of some new talent.

At the District meet, Tom Rowen, Ken Parker, Darryl Winston, and Sulayman Njie combined in the 400 meter relay to run good competitive races and placed 3rd. Also, Darryl Winston placed 3rd in both the 100 m. and the 200 m. while Sulayman Njie placed 2nd in the 200 m.

The highlight of the year was Shane Miller winning the 800 m. for the second consecutive year and setting a new personal record of 1:51.8 at Nationals in Houston. Miller also received the Wesley O. Young Track Award for being the student who has contributed most to track and field.

The 1980-81 Intramural competition was won by the determined Olympians. Through fierce battles and top sportsmanship, the OLY'S racked up points in football, raquetball, Rook, and the walkrace to remain on top. Their toughest competition, the ADP'S, finished second while the SPARTANS kept a close third. Not far behind was the LSP's while the ATHENIANS and the SLA's closed out the competition in fifth and sixth places respectively.

NNC's Intramural program is designed to allow participation in sports for all students interested in improving their personal health, skill, social development through recreation.

Antonette Blythe. If her name wasn't known on campus before, it certainly is now. Why? Miss Blythe became the first person to bring a national title in track and field home to NNC. A personal best of 18' 1" in the long jump at Nationals was enough to make her All-American. A freshman, she also went to Nationals in the 100 meter dash and the 400 meter relay. Her goal? The Olympics, of course! Antonette, we're behind you all the way!

Sulayman Njie

Adam Hat Sports Award

The Adam Hat Sports Trophy Cup was awarded to Sulayman Njie who was selected as the student contributing most to the college through loyalty, cooperation, conscientiousness, effort, sportsmanship, dependability, and achievement. During his college career, Sulayman participated in soccer, and track and field.

Maureen Freitag

Hopkins Humphrey Award

Maureen Freitag was awarded the Hopkins-Humphrey Intercollegiate Award for being the senior woman who has contributed the most to the women's sports program over a period of two to three years. The award is based on skill, ability, leadership, sportsmanship, and scholarship during her participation in women's extramurals. Maureen was a team leader in both field hockey and track.

TO THE PRAISE OF GOD'S GLORY

"To them God has chosen to make known the Gentiles the glorious riches of this mystery, which is Christ in you, the hope of glory. We proclaim him, admonishing and teaching everyone with all wisdom, so that we may present everyone perfect in Christ. To this end I labor, struggling with all his energy, which so powerfully works in me."

Colossians 1:27-29

(New International Version)

And besides this, giving all diligence, add to your faith virtue; and to virtue, knowledge;
And to knowledge, temperance; and to temperance,
patience; and to patience, godliness;
And to godliness, brotherly kindness; and to brotherly kindness, charity.
