Dr. Byron To Be Commencement Speaker, June 7

Dr. Lloyd B. Byron, District Superintendent of the North Carolina District, will give the Commencement address, June 7.

Rev. Byron has superintended the North Carolina District of the Church of the Nazarene since 1952. Before that he was for more than thirty years an outstanding pastor in his denomination.

A native of Maine, Rev. Byron entered the ministry in 1919 as a circuit preacher in Indiana. Other pastorates have included Lowell, Miss.; Lansing First Church, Kankakee, Illinois.

He is a graduate of Eastern Nazarene College, and took graduate work at Boston University. He has served as president of the New England District Youth Organization, and as trustee for several of the Nazarene educational institutions.

Five Seniors in Who's Who

Listed in the publication, "Who's Who Among Students in American Universities and Colleges" for the year 1954-55 are five seniors: Rose Merchant, Juanita Orndoff, Norma Carpenter, Wayne Sharpes and Charles Hodge. These were elected by the student body in the Fall Quarter.

Staff Presents Award Issue

For the first time an award issue is presented by the staff including all names and awards known at time of printing.

President Mackey Challenges Seniors

The Trevecca Seniors of '55 have an unusual opportunity to so work and live that Trevecca College will get additional recognition which will benefit all of us.

This opportunity is different from what would be the case of graduates from Vanderbilt, because Vanderbilt for many years has been nationally and internationally known. Trevecca graduates have not only the opportunity to do the unusual for their Alma Mater, but the responsibility to build a background for their own reputation, as well as to introduce Trevecca College to those who will become students and seniors at Trevecca in the years to come.

I transferred my credits from Olivet Nazarene College to another institution, which was not acquainted with Nazarene colleges. The Dean said he would write to Chicago University to find out about the standing of Olivet. Later, I inquired at the Dean's office to find out what the University of Chicago knew about Olivet. Fortunately, for me the registrar of the University of Chicago said that the students that they had received from Olivet did work toward their Doctor's degree with honors.

Seniors, do the same for Trevecca and its students that those graduates of Olivet did for me. Make a record such that you can conscientiously say, "I have given my best to Trevecca, so that Trevecca can give its best to others."

—A. B. Mackey

Rev. Hicks Delivers Baccalaureate Address To Graduates

He served three years as full-time evangelist in the Church of the Nazarene. He was pastor of Mobile, Alabama First Church, Chattanooga First Church and is now closing the fourth year as pastor at Ashland, Kentucky First Church.

Trevecca Attains Four-Year Teacher Training Status

Relinquishment

(TO THE SENIORS)

*Time is such a fleeting thing,
A breath, a sigh, 'tis gone.
Days will end at eveningtime
And other days will dawn.*

*Life is full of changing scenes
Friends must say good-by,
Another chapter finished, done,
and
Sunset bathes the sky.*

*But memory is like a book, with Many painted pictures
There are faces and places there
In gay and somber mixtures.*

*The Brush of time has left them
Thoughts you will always cherish,
While you live, tho years may pass,
Their colors will not perish.*

*God is changeless, changeless still
And other days are yours
Only He who journeys on
The final prize secures.*

—ROSE MERCHANT

SENIORS Is Class Night Theme

SENIORS was the theme of the Senior Class Night program on June 3, 1955. Taking each letter, members of the class spoke briefly on Sincerity, Education, Nerve, Integrity, Optimism, Religion and Service. The music was presented by members of the class and Earl Rowan, class president, was master of ceremonies. The decorations were furnished by the Junior Class.

Chapel Bells

As the end of school draws near the chapel bells mean more to the students because they could all be together for the last inspiring messages.

Rev. M. E. Redford brought a heart searching message from Romans 12:11. He expressed the need for holy fire in the heart of each Christian.

Rev. K. W. Phillips spoke on the program of the Holy Spirit for the Church. This message gave good advice to the young ministers.

Using Daniel as an example, Rev. Leon Chambers brought a message on prayer. He emphasized Daniel's regularity in praying regardless of the cares of life and his reputation.

Dr. A. B. Mackey's message promoted the idea that good Christians are good citizens.

Dr. A. K. Braken brought an encouraging message on May 17. Each of us have a song to sing and a creed to believe.

Rev. Hoya Harvey, an evangelist from Louisiana, spoke on the graces of God.

"Blessed are the pure in heart, for they shall see God" was the scripture for Rev. R. H. Roebuck.

A testimony and praise service was given over to the students on May 20 after Rev. C. E. Keys spoke on Trevecca. East Tennesseans were welcome visitors.

"Today is the day of salvation" was the admonition as Dr. A. B. Mackey brought the message on May 23. God blessed and many young people at the altar made it their time for salvation.

Revival services continued in chapel with Rev. Charles Childers preaching. Students found the Lord in pardon and purity. We have had an almost continuous revival at Trevecca this year, and we praise God for it and for these wonderful closing services.

High School Graduates
Twenty-Nine Seniors

In the year of 1951 the High School Freshmen Class started on a four-year voyage of success with a class of fifteen. Through the four years the class has increased and engaged in many activities.

Climaxing the year is the graduation of the following: Bob Archer, Kenneth Belangia, Carolyn Benson, Bobby Barnhill, Joyce Beine, Dorothy Boren, Eugene Campbell, Lonnie Chitwood, Frances Collin, Ottis Donegan, Connie Earles, Curtis Galloway, Philip Goode, Nadine Hudson, Phyllis Jones, Robert Kennedy, Eula Gardner McNeece, Jennie Syderstricker, Donnie Smith, Larry Smith, Fred Thurman, Standley Tucker, Wm. Terry Williams, Pat Owen, Wesley Eby, Asa Sparks, Violita Verness, Edie Miller, and J. R. Sutherland.

Student Council Marks
Successful Year

Among the more important activities of the 1954-55 Student Council was the inauguration of a council within the high school.

The Council began the year by sponsoring the film, "Reaching Down From Heaven." Along with the sponsorships was a light bulb sales campaign, a drive for furniture for the new Student Center, a movement toward the purchasing of new hymn books for the Alumni Auditorium and the boosting of the cancer drive.

As a partial result of a recommendation by the Council a system of privileges for upperclassmen is being worked on by the faculty committee.

The revisionment of the student handbook has also been undertaken with plans for the new revised edition to be out in the fall.

Dr. John Stockton, general treasurer of the Church, presented the Student Council lectures. The Council, along with the Honor Society, gave a luncheon in his honor.

Another steppingstone was the passing of an amendment regarding the elimination of inactive members and clubs.

The Council voted to do away with state clubs, pending the approval of the Associated Students.

The Student Council requested some form of financial remuneration for the six major officers commensurate with the amount of services rendered which was granted by the Administration.

Among the activities initiated to improve the cultural status of Trevecca was the sponsorship of the better citizenship campaign.

Of great interest to all is the fact that Trevecca's Student Council was accepted into the T.A.C.S.G.

This has been a good year and the cooperation of the students and faculty has been excellent.

Student Leaders for 1955-56

Student Council President: E. C. Rose, a senior from Lexington, Kentucky. This year E. C. was president of the Men's Athletic Association and Kentucky Club. He was also Junior representative on the Student Council.

Seniors Review Past

As commencement time draws near the twenty-six members of the 1955 graduating class look back on the past four years at T.N.C. But, like the mythical Janus, they are also looking toward the unknown life waiting them.

For a backward glance, picture the hustle and bustle of the hectic days of September 25 and 26, 1951, when 113 typical "green" freshmen stood in endless lines, struggled through entrance exams, and at last came through victoriously as full-fledged Trevecca students. Charles Hodge was the capable president.

The following September saw 60 of the original 113 return. Sophomore president Freeman Davis and his cake code committee prepared an unsolvable brain-teaser.

On September 16, 1953, a faithful band of 30, proudly registered as Juniors. Robert Agner led the class as president.

The senior class of 1954-55 has had an outstanding record as class of the year, under the capable leadership of Earl Rowan, president.

Now class night is over; the Baccalaureate sermon has been delivered, and tonight will be the crowning achievement of four years of hard work. Those who will receive the Bachelor of Arts degree are: Paul Achhammer, Robert Agner, Maxwell Bennett, Norma Carpenter, Kenneth Clements, Donald Cork, Mildred Crane, Charles Cunningham, Mary Driskell, Ruth Evans, Paul Fitch, Iris Gunther, Clifford Hampton, Charles Hodge, Robert Ingram, Thomas McClain, Rose Merchant, Juanita Orndoff, Marion Pressley, Charles Rhyne, Dalton Roberts, Earl Rowan, Wygelia Pearson, Wayne Sharpes, Donald Toole and Edward York.

Classes Elect Presidents

Leading the Seniors will be Carol Anne Asbury who has proved her ability by the way she has served the Juniors as president this year. Wendell Williams, another Junior class officer, will represent the Seniors on the student council.

Larry Finger was chosen as president of the Junior class; Cary Duckett, present Sophomore representative, will be on the student council.

Moody Gunter, will be president of the Sophomore class. Asa Sparks will be student council representative.

Lyle Parker and Joe Strickland have been elected as president and student council representative to serve the Junior Theological class.

Through the reports of the Christian Workers approximately seven hundred persons were converted.

Choirs Give Program

The A Capella Choir has had a very successful year under the direction of Professor Ramon Unruh. It has made several appearances here in Nashville and has sung at other occasions out of the city.

The Choir recently sang at Benson Memorial Church and also gave a concert at Grace Church in Columbia, Tennessee. Both of these trips proved to be successful and were a blessing to both the people and to the Choir.

The joint-choirs gave their annual concert on June 4 in the McClurkan Auditorium.

East Tennesseans Visit

A large group of prospective students and Trevecca supporters from East Tennessee District visited the campus, May 20 and 27.

The group was honored by a luncheon in the college cafeteria at which Dr. Mackey was the main speaker.

Though this district is one of the youngest on the Southeastern zone it has established a reputation as a strong Trevecca supporter.

This was a profitable diversion to the Student Council after a year of continuous responsibilities.

Seniors Named Class of Year

The interest in most of our classes and clubs has been good this year. Choosing the winner for the awards was difficult due to the keen competition.

The following are awarded by the faculty and student council. College Class of the Year, Seniors; Honorable Mention, Juniors. Club of the Year (Departmental), Men's Athletic Society; Honorable Mention, Ministerial Association. Club of the Year (State), Kentucky Club; Honorable Mention, West Virginia Club.

"Moonlight and Roses" Is Banquet Theme

As the Juniors and Seniors gathered for their annual banquet on May 28, they were welcomed by the beautiful strains of "Moonlight and Roses." This theme was carried through the program and in the decorations. A silver moon made a background for a rose covered trellis, and silver stars twinkled down from the sky.

The dinner music was provided by Frank Bobo, popular Nashville organist. A program of music and readings on love, friendship and religion was presented after the meal by Mr. Bobo and Jimmy Kent, Nashville radio announcer.

The Sophs were not out of the game yet, the "Big Red" ran across three for themselves. Harold Hughes sparked the inning with a long drive for a three bagger.

Things were air tight until the bottom of the sixteenth inning when the Sophs squeezed a run in for a 5-4 victory. This win moved the Sophs within a single game of the pace-setting Freshmen.
