DR. JOHN R. CHURCH

March 7-11 marked one of the best revivals Trevecca has had recently. Dr. John R. Church was our evangelist, from Winston-Salem, North Carolina.

Dr. Church's messages were inspiring and encouraging. Many were saved and sanctified, while others received definite help. We believe that this school revival, in connection with College Hill Church, has had good results.

Dr. Lela McConnell Is Chapel Speaker

Dr. Lela G. McConnell, founder of the Kentucky Mountain Holiness Association, was guest chapel speaker February 29. This institution had its beginning thirty-two years ago. It was, and still is, financed entirely by faith in God. Miss McConnell has suffered many hardships, but through much prayer and fasting and simple faith in God she has seen great things accomplished.

Several out-post schools and a radio station are connected with the school and are able to reach many people with the gospel. Hundreds of young people—including murderers, drunkards—have found definite victory in regeneration and sanctification and are now bearers of the gospel.

The Circuit Judge of Kentucky told Miss McConnell that her Bible School had done more for the citizens in ten years than the law had done in two hundred.

Caravan Arrives From Mississippi March 15

The motorcade from the Mississippi District arrived on campus Thursday, March 15, for a short visit to better acquaint their young people with our school. This was the first caravan from Mississippi for many years.

Mickie Smith, president of the Mississippi Club, presided over the program planned for the visitors. Some time shortly after their arrival the guests were escorted on a tour of the campus. In the evening a banquet was held for the visitors and Mississippi students.

The caravan returned to Mississippi Friday morning. Remember to pray that they will arrive safely.

West Virginia Club Sponsors Chili Supper

The West Virginia Club, under the direction of its president, Don Pyles, had a chili supper at the apartment of Norma Carpenter and Iris Gunther.

West Virginians and their guests attending were: Kathy Eannottie, Helen Rood, Kay Hall, Judy Wallace, Maryanne Miller, Jim Martin, Roy Miller, Eula Gardner McNeece, Don Browning, Jan Penix, Larry Leeper, Libby Stucki, Cary Neal Duckett, Jean Dodd, Mary Jo Bowling, Emily Hamilton, Elaine Huff, Arnetta Childers, Wesley Eby, James Ralph, and Joyce Atkins.

H.S. Choir Has Outing

The High School Choir recently held a chili supper at the Taystee Bread Company.

Seniors to Entertain Junior Class March 24

The time has again arrived for fun and fellowship. The Seniors will entertain the Junior class with a social on March 24. The time and place will be announced at a later date.

This social event is an annual affair. It is something that is looked upon as one of the highlights of the year by these two classes.

The purpose of the occasion is to express appreciation to the Juniors for the entertainment they will give the Seniors at the Junior-Senior Banquet, scheduled in May.

Larry Finger to Present Music Recital March 16

Larry Finger will present a junior music recital Friday night, March 16, at 7:30 p.m., in the Fine Arts Auditorium.

Among the numbers he will sing are: "Comfort Ye My People" and "Every Valley Shall Be Exalted" from Handel's Messiah; Serenade by Tosti; "When Irish Eyes Are Smiling," "My Wild Irish Rose," "A Spirit Flower," and "Love Is The Wind."

Mary Jo Bowling will accompany him at the piano.

Trios Represent College

Two girls trio groups are traveling in Florida, representing Trevecca in various churches and assemblies. Miss Marie Perry is accompanying a trio composed of Joann Hennigan, Bythella Theus, and Bobbie Seymour.

Rev. Clifford E. Keys, our Field Representative, and his wife are traveling with the other trio, which is made up of Winifred Halstead, Frances Howick, and Nancy Sheridan.

A Wholesome Tongue

"A wholesome tongue is a tree of life
Whose roots have humbly sunk
In the depths of the soil of God's rich grace,
And of its sweetness drunk."

H.S. Seniors to Present "Tom Sawyer" Play March 23 in Fine Arts

The High School Senior Class, under the direction of Carol Anne Asbury, will present "The Adventures of Tom Sawyer" by Charles George, Friday evening, March 23, in the Fine Arts auditorium.

The cast is Tom Sawyer (Bill Galloway); Joe Harper (Bruce Kelly), his best friend; Huckleberry Finn (Larry Kolar), the village outcast; Aunt Polly (Barbara Martin), who does her best to "bring Tom up"; Mary (Betty Fitch) the cousin; Becky Thatcher (Linda Hampton) Tom's "girl friend"; Mrs. Harper (Beverly Forman) a neighbor, and her daughter Susy (Ruby Rushing); Widow Douglas (Joyce Woods) the news-gatherer; Jim (Kermit Hudson) a young Negro boy, and the Sheriff (Jack Cruse).

A Traffic Ticket Speaks!

I am just a little innocent traffic ticket. My coming into existence has been through much suffering from unintentional violation. I was begun in the minds of some farsighted journalism students and their instructor. I had been anticipated for some time before I finally arrived.

Some of the students of the Journalism class of years gone by thought I was worthy of honorable mention. Later, I was discussed by the faculty members; but finally my fate was placed in the hands of the students of T.N.C. through the Student Council.

So, here I am on the College bulletin board to warn you of the following offenses: ILLEGAL PARKING, SPEEDING, RECKLESS DRIVING, AND FAILURE TO GET YOUR CAR REGISTERED.

If you fail to take my warning, I may see you in the Business Office explaining to Wendell Williams whose business it is to extract fifty cents from you for first offense or one dollar for extra visits.

Come to the Lord Go to the Lost

To find God, or get saved, we must come God's way. Jesus said, "Come unto me all ye that labour and are heavy laden and I will give you rest."

"And the Spirit and the bride say, Come. And let him that heareth say, Come. And whosoever will, let him take of the water of life freely."

To retain God, or keep saved, we must go God's way. Jesus said, "Go ye therefore and teach all nations—and lo, I am with you always."

"Go out into the highways and hedges, and compel them to Come in, that my house may be filled."

"And whosoever shall compel thee to Go a mile, Go with him twain."

To Come is to receive, but to Go is to carry our part of the Cross. We cannot Go with the Cross until first we have Come to the Cross. The importance of Coming is lost if we do not intend to Go.

"Thy Will Be Done"

Staying in touch with Christ is a must in the life of a Christian. Many times it seems that the end is at hand. There is something we can do—look up and take courage and say "Lord, not my will, but Thine be done."

Leave It Outside! The Arm of the Lord

Leave anything outside the chapel that keeps you from being reverent.

Don't carry your letter writing equipment, books, nail clippers and idle thoughts to chapel with you if you can't keep them under control. We cannot write letters, read books, clip our nails, and let our minds wander and expect to contribute to the worship in a reverent attitude.

Remember, there may be someone beside you who may be annoyed by such things and not be able to worship as he would like to.

Let's leave our talking till after chapel and get enough sleep outside chapel so we will not have to sleep there.

We may have to exercise some will-power for some of this, but after all, that's one thing we need to learn and practice in college.

From now on when we come to chapel may we keep our minds on things of God. If there's a song-book near you, pick it up and sing; if there's a testimony in your heart, testify; if there's a burden on your heart, pray; if you want to know more about God, listen to the speaker.

Good chapel conduct is what we need to keep in mind as Christian students in a Nazarene college.

Despise Not Little Things

The birds will soon be coming back to their summer homes. These homes are built with little particles of twigs, strings, bark, etc. People would hardly notice these little things because they seem so insignificant. Yet when they are built together they make a strong, happy home where baby birds await with mouths wide open to receive a little portion of food that will make them grow big and strong.

There is nothing small; it is only man's evaluation of things that makes them appear that way. God does not place the same evaluation on things as man.

It is the little deeds of kindness that build our home of happiness, and feed the hungry souls of men. If we wait until we can do some great deed of valour, our building will crumble into the dust of despair.

Let us not despise the day of small things.

"To whom is the arm of the Lord revealed?"

To him whose eye, though Himself concealed,

In trees and brooks His face discerns,

In dewdrops, verdant grass and ferns;

And in the sparrow of the air
The object of His loving care.

"On what mind are the thoughts of God impressed?"

The mind the love of God has blessed;

The intellect His breath has fixed
With wisdom more to be desired

Than much fine gold or honey sweet—

For kneeling low—at Jesus' feet.

"What soul doth the angel of the Lord

Encamp about and peace afford?
The heart that in His grace doth hope,

Assured that in His great scope,
Our great unknown He clearly sees,

Our paths directs, Himself to please.

—Paul Hendon

Olivet to Discontinue Bible Conferences

At a meeting of the faculty of the Division of Religion and Philosophy of Olivet Nazarene College it was decided to discontinue the Annual Olivet Bible Conference.

Among the reasons given were the small enrollment, the cost in time, travel and money to ministers who attend, and the trend toward holding Bible Conferences on the district level.

Members of the Theological faculty were asked to make themselves available to the districts and zones as Bible teachers and lecturers.

Pray for Missionaries

If you want to receive a blessing by helping our missionaries and others through prayer, you can have a vital part in the cause of furthering God's Kingdom by attending the Missionary Prayer Band. It is held every Friday in the College Hill Sanctuary, right after chapel. We will be looking for you.

Anyone desiring to eat on the campus Easter week-end, please notify the cafeteria manager by Friday noon March 30.

Chapel Bells

February 24

Mrs. Lily Ann Norris stated her subject in the form of a question. "What can you do when you can't do anything?" The answer: (1) Keep a sweet attitude (2) Count your blessings (3) Trust and obey (4) Hold steady.

February 27

A mighty manifestation of the Holy Spirit came upon the chapel service Monday. Students began testifying of what the Lord had done for them. Without a song or invitation, the altar was filled with those needing spiritual help.

February 28

Tuesday, Dr. Adams opened his message with the question, "What is a testimony?" Testimonies are a sign of Christian activity. There are many reasons to testify, but always we should praise, glorify, and exalt God!

February 29

Dr. McConnell from the Kentucky Mountain Bible School told of the many times God had answered prayer by faith. We all received help and inspiration from her message.

February 20

Rev. Ray Miller a missionary from Trinidad, spoke from the Scripture John 15:7. He took for his subject "The Romance of Prayer." Bro. Miller said that everyone who has the abiding presence of God in his heart is called to be a missionary.

February 21

Spontaneous testimonies filled the auditorium with the glory and presence of the Lord. Many students witnessed to the love and power of our Savior. Several testified that they had received definite help.

February 22

Rev. L. B. Reece, a native of Indiana, spoke from the subject "The Purpose of God." The purpose of God has certain characteristics: (1) Dignity (2) Devotion (3) Delight. Let each of us fulfill the task God has given us.

February 23

The revival spirit, which has been so real on Trevecca campus, was keenly felt in the service on Thursday. Previous to the chapel service, prayer meetings were held. These greatly accounted for the shouts of victory. Rev. Hugh Slater spoke on the influence we have.

SOCIAL LEDGER LEAVES

A big puff of wind blew me in McKay Hall the other day.

I walked down the hall, looked in the first room I came to, and saw Miriam Rushton, Nelzene and Hazel Edmonds, and Mary Lou McCormick eating pastries and drinking hot chocolate. I looked longingly at the donut box but they didn't take the hint, so I left.

Further down the hall, Kathleen Cross and Thelma Lee were busy taking exercises.

Something caught my eye on the door of room 6A. It was a 12" by 18" drawing of the Nevada desert and the Sierra Nevada mountains. Going closer, I saw a name in the lower left hand corner—Don Browning. We have a chalk artist in our midst! However, I did wonder just how that picture came to be in McKay instead of Tidwell.

Back outside again, I saw a group of West Virginians (and otherwise) congregated on the sidewalk. In the middle was an attractive young lady named Kay Hall, from Huntington, who visited Helen Rood for the weekend.

By the way, it may or may not have been a puff of wind that blew Eleanor Goode in a water-hole on the way from Howard Johnsons the other night. Contact Norma Jean Peters, Cary Neal Duckett, Tonya Beals, or Larry Leeper. They could tell you more about it than I.

Speaking of light checks, Bill Williams made quite a mistake the other night. He could tell you more about that, too.

Eddie Irwin pulled a unique stunt the night of "Open House" at Tidwell. He had his tape recorder going full speed. When "visitors" came to his room they heard themselves making comments from way down the hall.

Betty Greene and Carol Poling were seen leaving the dorm with strange articles about 8 x 10 inches large!

While we're talking about strange goings-on Mary Ann Evans was running around the trailer court the other evening. The only thing we could figure out is that she's picking out a site for her own trailer! Ask Jim Martin about that.

Please be sure this March wind doesn't blow you away with the leaves!

Nina Griggs Is Capable Girls Athletic President

A sparking personality and a friendly smile are two characteristics of our Girl's Athletic Association president, Nina Griggs.

Nina was born in Bennettsville, South Carolina, on September 4, 1937.

A long-time member of Trevecca's student body, she came here in her junior year in high school.

Back in Cheraw High School, where she spent her first two years of high school, Nina was captain of the girls' softball team two years and a member of the Latin Club.

Quite a sports enthusiast, she was voted "Most Athletic" in her senior class.

She was treasurer of the G. A.

Speech Recital Given

The life of Dr. Peter Marshall, well-known clergyman of his day, and one-time Chaplain of the United States Senate, was portrayed by Carol Anne Asbury in her senior speech recital.

Material for the recital was taken from Catherine Marshall's best seller, A Man Called Peter.

Following the recital a reception for Carol Anne was held in the home of Rev. and Mrs. Claude W. Galloway.

The recital was sponsored by the Speech Department, and special music was given by Larry Finger and R. T. Kendall.

A. before being elected president. She's been secretary, reporter, and president of the South Carolina Club.

An active Christian Worker, Nina is the captain of the Friday night street meeting group.

You can see her in the High School office during the day when she doesn't have classes—she's worked there three years.

Nina is planning a life of service in the Lord's work—she has already been preaching three years.

We'll hear wedding bells ring when Nina becomes Mrs. Moody Gunter in September.
