“What a wonderful day
the Lord has given us;
Let us be happy, let us celebrate . . .”
Psalms 117:24

I can see nothing plain; all's mystery.

—William Butler Yeats

To see the World in a Grain of Sand
And Heaven in a Wild Flower,
Hold Infinity in the palm of your hand
And Eternity in an hour.

—William Blake

... Nothing is too simple,
too ordinary, too routine;
to escape one's wonderment.

—Michael Novak

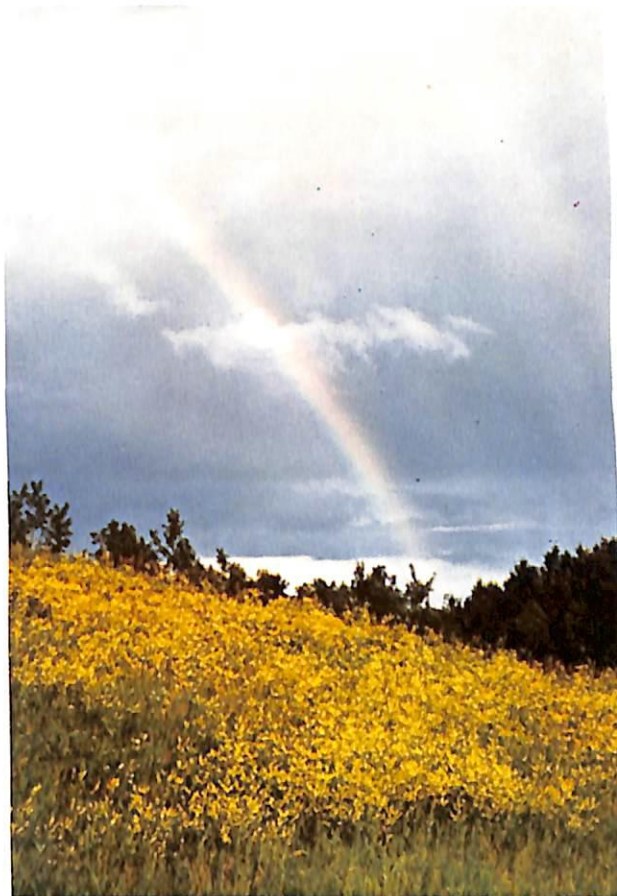

Evening approaches
with the garb of silence, Brightness is deprived of its intensity—
It is softened by Time.

Peace comes to the earth for a moment
And all is still.

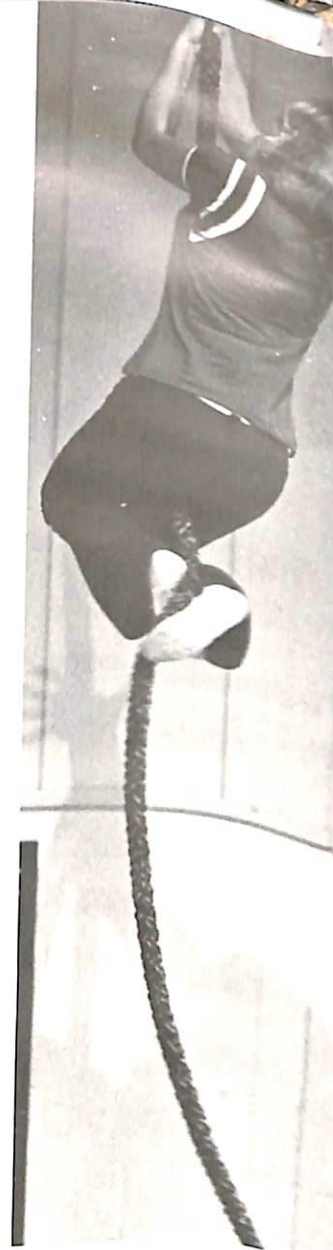

Rest, oh earth.
Be content, for the day is done.
Rest.

I hear beyond the range of sound,
I see beyond
the range of sight
New earths and skies
and seas abound,
And in my day the sun
doth pale his light.
—Henry David Thoreau

O GLAD, EXULTING, CULMINATING SONG!

A vigor more than earth's is in they notes . . .
A Reborn race appears—a perfect world,
All Joy!

Women and men in wisdom, innocence and health,
All Joy!
Riotous laughing bacchanals filled with Joy!

War, sorrow, suffering gone—
the rank earth purged—nothing but Joy left!

The ocean filled with Joy—the atmosphere,
All Joy!

Joy! Joy in freedom, worship, love!
Joy in the ecstasy of life!

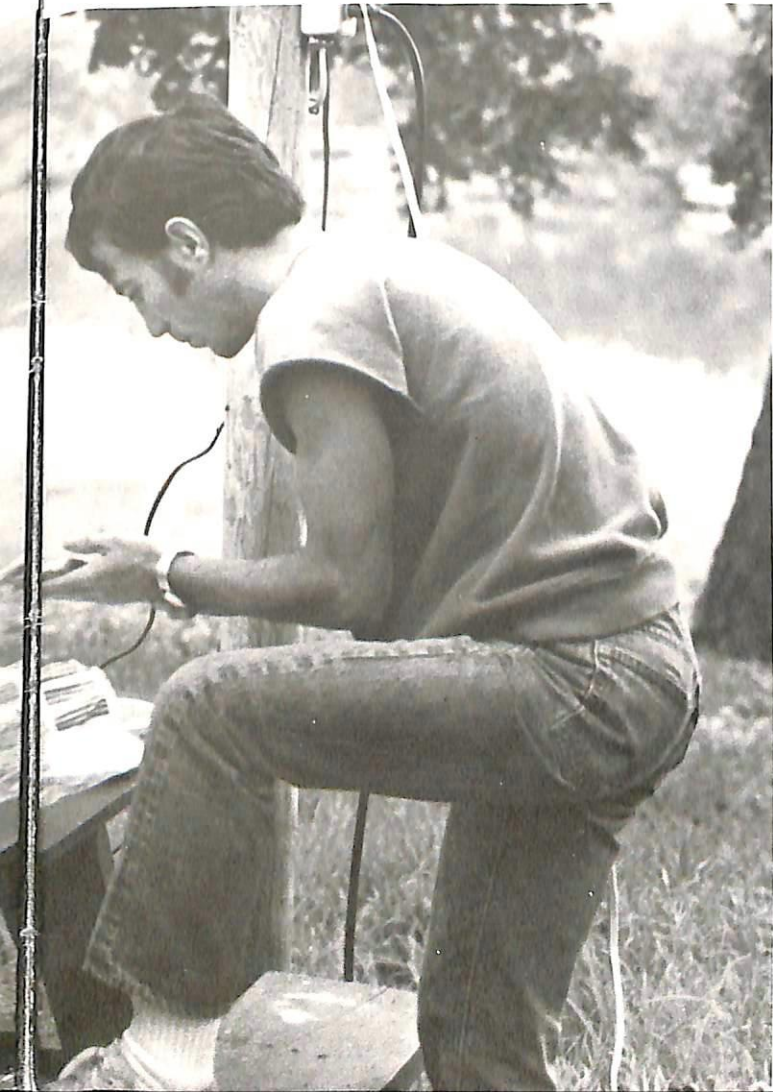

Enough to merely be! enough to breathe!
Joy! Joy! all over Joy!

—Walt Whitman

Life is full of surprises;
Wonder at life is an experience of one's total person and calls for celebration.
—John F. O'Grady

Freedom is the necessary condition of happiness
as well as of virtue;
freedom, not in the sense of the ability to make arbitrary choices and not freedom from necessity, but freedom to realize that which one potentially is, to fulfill the true nature of man
according to the laws of his existence.
—Erich Fromm

Flying . . . Up totally free and alive.

Breathing . . . In absolutely all that surrounds you.

Reaching . . . Out to all that you love.

Flying, Breathing, Reaching . . .
to the sky!

Step back from your tasks—
Release those heavy weights . . .
Prepare yourself for exhilaration as you let go . . . And Laugh!

Friendship is intimate relationship between two human beings; becoming open to each other, they are able to put aside fears and suspicions and enjoy the pains and pleasures of vulnerability.

—Andrew Greeley

Friends are like the warm blue sea,
they splash laughter
into your eyes.
—Karen Reynolds

The most visible joy can only reveal itself to us when we've transformed it, within.

—Rainer Maria Rilke

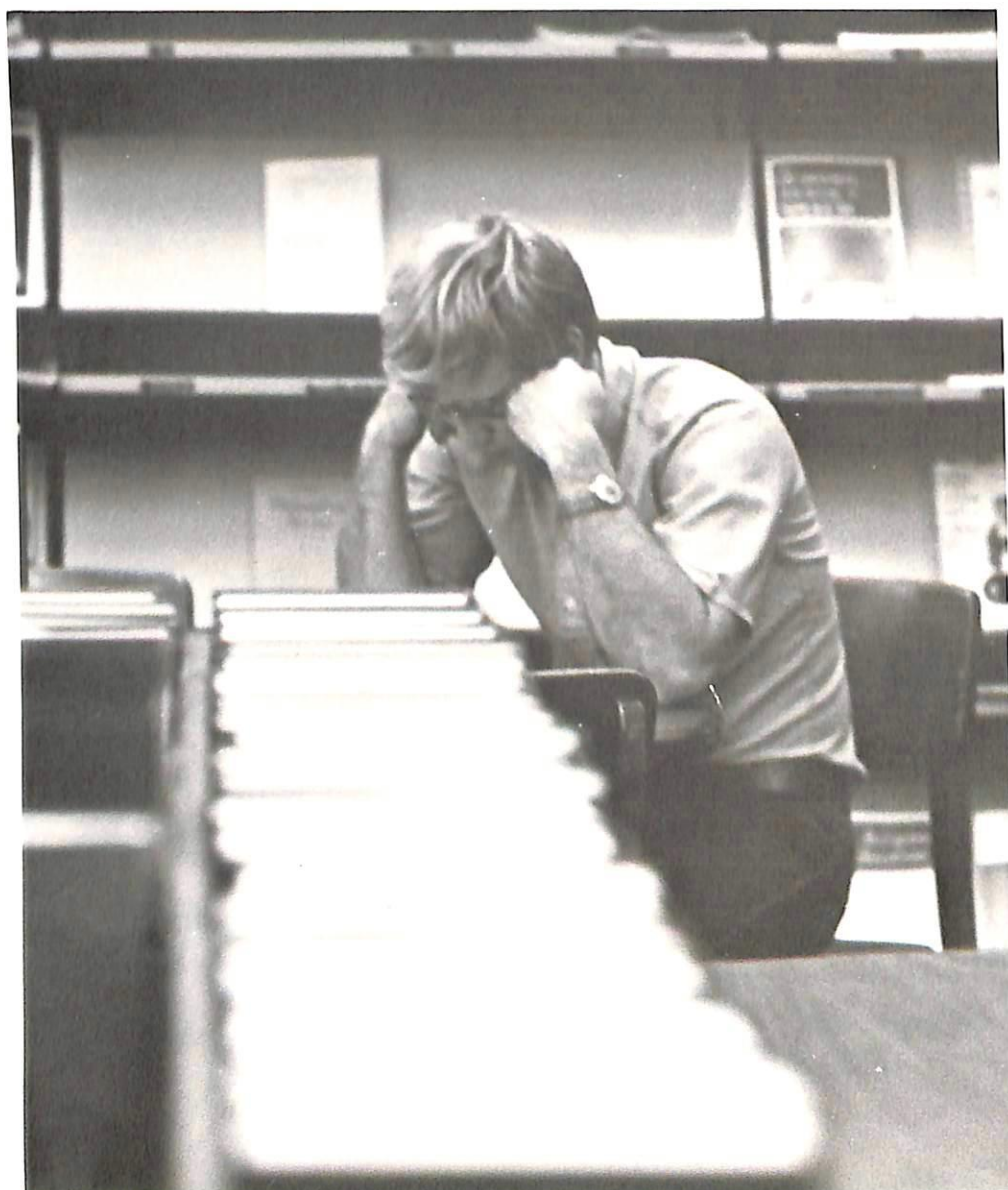

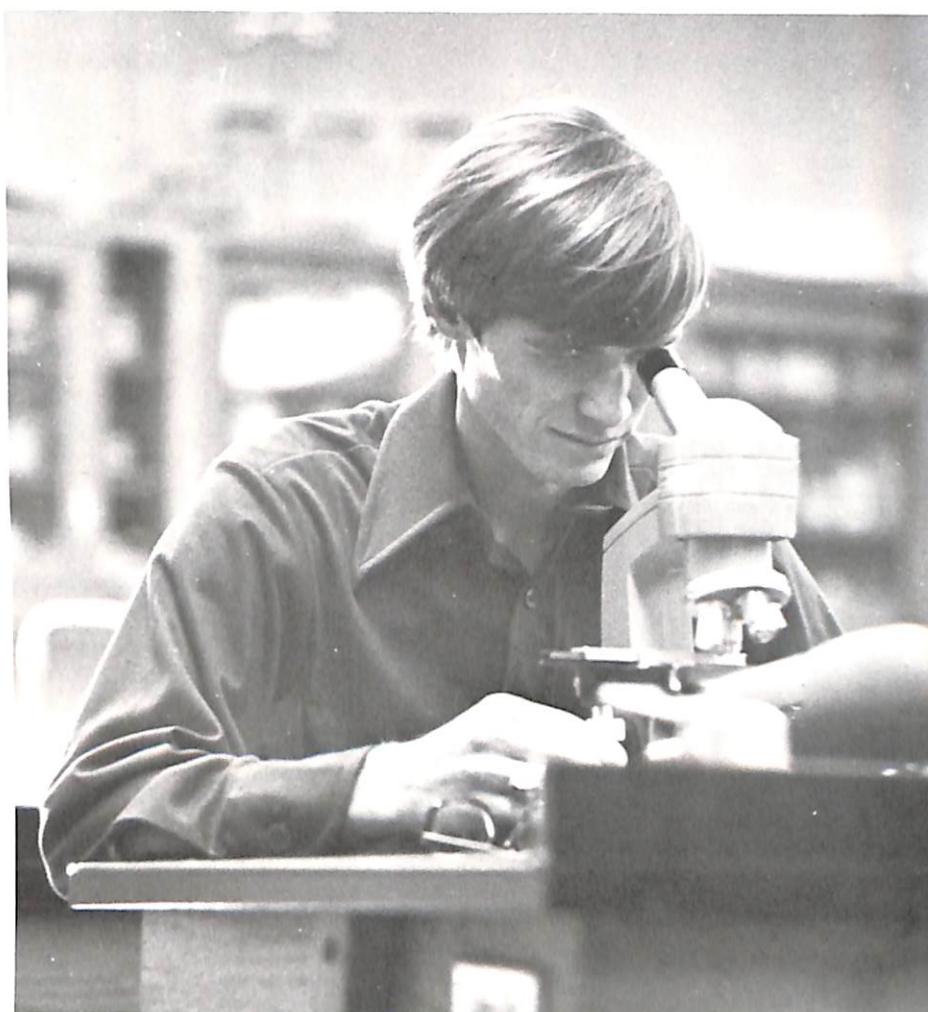

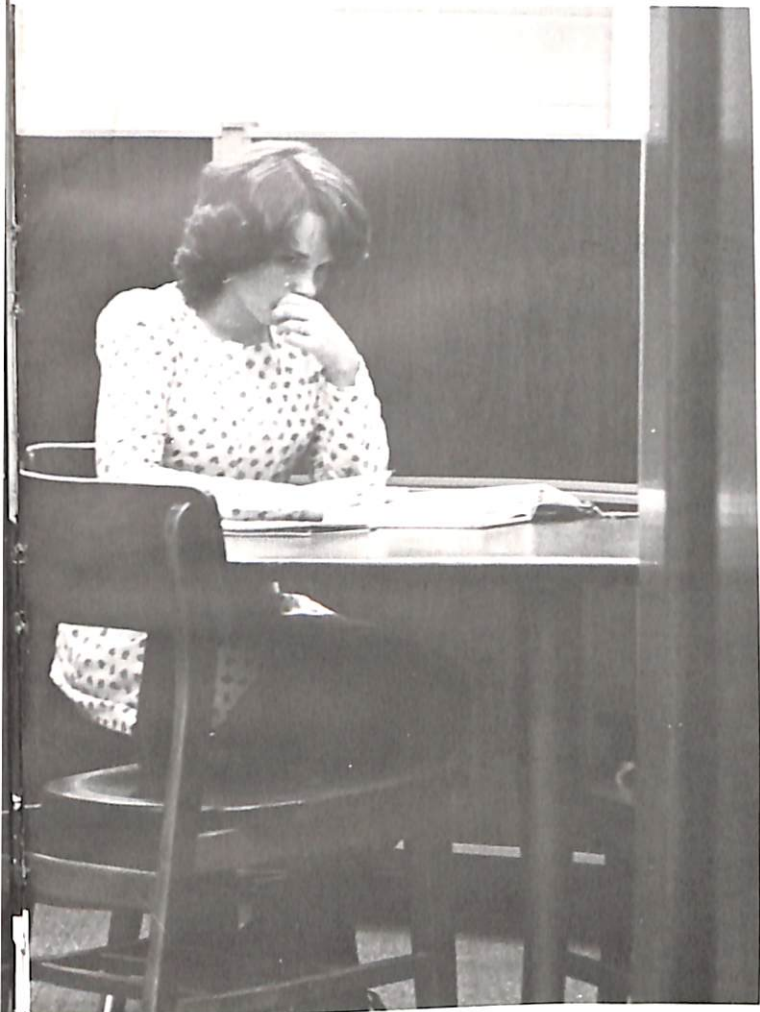

Solitude enables you to make contact with yourself, a necessity if you want to realize yourself not to repeat like a parrot a few acquired formulas, but to be the prophet of God within you who speaks a unique language to each man.

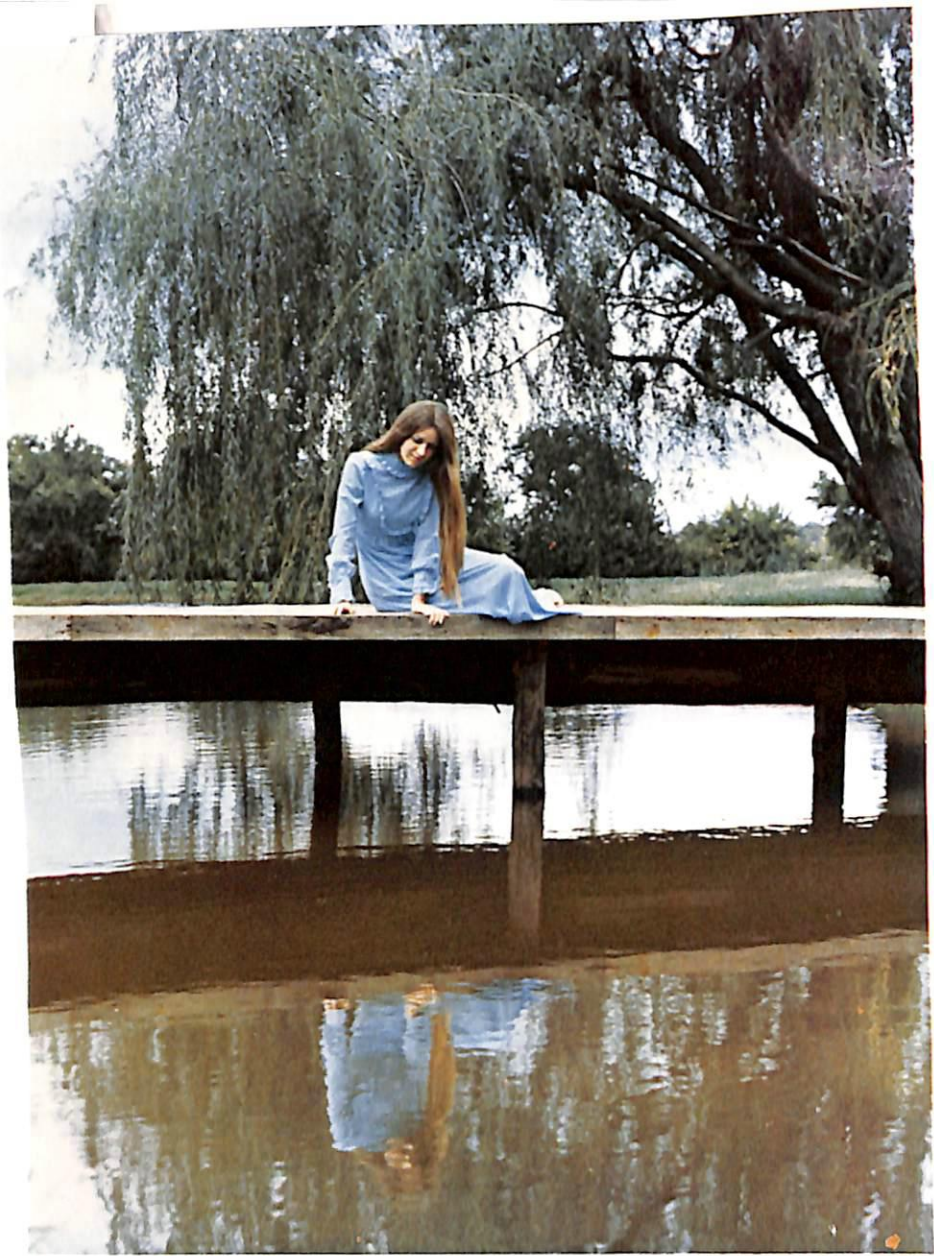

—Antonin Sertillanges

The most beautiful thing we can experience is the mystery.
—Albert Einstein

Silence helps one enter into more elevated spheres and listen to the mysterious voice of God.
—Pius XII

It is man's destiny to ponder on the riddle of existence, and, as a by-product of his wonderment, to create a new life on this earth.
—Charles Ketterling

... In fantasy, no holds are barred.
We suspend . . . the whole structure of everyday "reality."
In fantasy we become not only our ideal selves, but totally different people.
We abolish the limits of our powers and perceptions.
We soar.

—Harvey Cox

Nothing worth doing is completed in our lifetime. Therefore we must be saved by hope.

Nothing true or beautiful makes complete sense in any context of history. Therefore we must be saved by faith.

Nothing we do, no matter how virtuous, can be accomplished alone. Therefore we are saved by love.

Reinhold Niebuhr

CROSS COUNTRY BEST SEASON EVER

The 1973 cross country team, led by senior Tony Laird and junior Dwight Rich, had its best season ever, winning eight out of nine dual meets, and placing high in three invitationals. The team was well-balanced, with four lettermen and four freshmen.

Excitement Key of Pioneer Basketball 1973-1974

The 1973-74 Pioneer Basketball team provided plenty of excitement for their fans. The roar in the gym indicated that fans enjoyed the thrilling plays which occurred on the court. Second-half rallies, record-breaking performances by individuals and near-perfect long range shooting kept crowds jumping to their feet. There was no doubt that the team was dedicated to their sport.

Look to this day!
For it is life, the very life of life.
In its brief course Lie all the verities and realities of your existence:
 The bliss of growth
 The glory of action
 The splendor of achievement.
For yesterday is but a dream
And tomorrow is only a vision,
But today well lived makes every yesterday a dream of happiness
And every tomorrow a vision of hope.

Look well, therefore, to this day!

Sanskrit Prayer

I would like to take this opportunity to extend my very sincere thanks to . . .

. . . Cheryl Stevens, 1974 CONESTOGA sponsor

. . . Stephen Campbell, business manager and his assistant, Jan Bellman

. . . Cheryl Macoy, assistant editor

. . . Division editors Connie Shipman,
Kathy Kruse, Tim Komoto, Joyce Scharmer,
Sandy Dillabaugh, and Jeanne Orjala

. . . for their extensive work on the CONESTOGA and for their cooperation with the editor. A special thanks is due Phil Butler for his photography work.

I am also grateful to the many people who came to our rescue at deadline time and did the less "glamorous" jobs on the yearbook.

Finally, I would like to extend a most heartfelt thank you to Connie and Barbara for enduring five deadlines with me, for allowing me to move the entire Conestoga Office into the living room of our apartment and for helping me realize the beauty of celebrating life together.

Sincerely,

Nikki Ingram
1974 CONESTOGA Editor
